

1350.

MEMBRANE 22d.

July 12.
Westminster.

Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Sharesull, John Golafre, Richard de Willamescote and Richard de Birton, on complaint by John Seys, king's clerk, parson of the church of Henneye, that Roger abbot of Abyndon, and Roger Wyk, John Stapilton, Henry Wodhu Richard Garston and Walter Glorie, his fellow-monks, John de Le Richard Mary, John Mary, William Mary, Thomas de Thorpe, parson of the church of Sonyngwell, Richard Waryner, Robert 'le abboteschau berleyn' of Abyndon, John Ingram of Abyndon, Robert Paneter, Henry Bullok, Thomas 'the Reve' of Charney, Ralph atte Mulle of Weleford, John Lucas and others, at Henneye, co. Berks, carried away his goods and assaulted his men and servants, whereby he lost their service for a great time. By C. and for 10s. paid to the king in the hanap.

July 16.
Westminster.

Commission to John de Wynchestre, William de Overton and Richard Imbert setting forth that, whereas the king, learning that 40 tuns of wine of some of his enemies of France had been brought in a ship of Bayon to the port of Southampton, lately charged the mayor and bailiffs of Southampton to cause the wine to be arrested and kept until they should have further order from him herein, he now understands that the wine has for the most part been made away with and concealed; and appointing them to make inquisition in the county of Southampton and certify him of all the circumstances of this case.

MEMBRANE 21d.

June 30.
Westminster.

Appointment of Master William de Hurle and William de Herlond to take carpenters, stonemasons and other workmen as required for some works to be done in the wood of Beaumes for the king's manor of Eltham and his manor and castle of Wyndesore; and to put them to work at their wages, as he has enjoined them more fully. By bill of the treasure.

June 28.
Westminster.

Commission of oyer and terminer to Richard de Kelleshell, Edmund de Baconesthorpe and Thomas Chauntecler, on complaint by Thomas Moigne, 'chivaler,' that Robert de Mauteby, 'chivaler,' John, his brother and others drove away 20 horses, 40 oxen and 20 cows of his, worth 100 marks, at Merkessale and Caystre by Norwich, co. Norfolk. By .

July 6.
Westminster.

Commission to Richard de Denton, constable of Carlisle Castle and sheriff of Cumberland, and Hugh de Louthere setting forth that the king has received a grave complaint of John, parson of the church of Westirke Adam Litel and Stephen Moubrayman of Scotland, containing that whereas confiding in a promise made in the king's name by the same Richard and under a safe-conduct from Thomas de Lucy, one of the wardens of the march of Scotland, they came from Scotland to Carlisle the same Richard to treat of the safe guard of the march and redress the state thereof, one William de Stapelton, usurping the king's royal power, came with armed men to the city in manner of war and took the prisoners and brought them to his fortalice on the water of Amote and rebelliously detained them in prison there against the king's minister sent for him and in his name to the fortalice to obtain their deliverance as right requires, not permitting them to be delivered by those ministers by plevy or otherwise, and would in nowise deliver them to the same Richard except on security for their re-deliverance to him on a day set by him, in contempt of the king, to the retarding of important business, and to the terror of the people dwelling on the march; and appointing them to inform themselves by inquisitions or other lawful means of the who