1350.

prior and convent to regrant the same to the said William and Isabel and William their son, in survivorship, to find the said chaplain to celebrate as long as they live. It appears by the inquisition that a messuage, 188 acres of land, 21½ acres of meadow and 11 acres of pasture in Fissingleak are held in chief, and that the residue of the said tenements are held of others. By K. on the petition of the said William de Notton.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the warden, fellows and scholars of the hall of the Holy Trinity of the university of Cantebrugge, in part satisfaction of the houses, inns and places sufficient for their habitation which they have the king's licence to acquire, by Master Richard Lynge, archdeacon of Norwich, Master Walter de Elveden and Simon de Rekynghale, parson of the church of Rollesby, of three messuages in Cantebrugge, and by the prior and convent of Ely of a messuage and a plot of land there, in the street called 'Mylnstrete.'

Licence for brother William de Wabadon, proctor of the abbey of Fécamp and farmer of the lands of that abbey in England now in the king's hands, to fell oaks and other trees in the woods pertaining to those lands in the county of Sussex to the value of 100 marks, and sell the same at his will, to help towards the payment of his farm and the building and repairing of mills and other houses of the said lands. By C.

Pardon, for good service done in France and Ireland, to Roger de Riggenayden of the king's suit for the death of Alan de Catherton, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

By K. on the information of Roger de Bello Campo.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the mayor and commonalty of the town of Cantebrugge to the prior and Carmelite Friars of Cantebrugge of a well of water without the town, called 'Hokerwell,' and 10 feet of land in length and 10 feet of land in breadth in the circuit of the well; and for the prior and friars to enclose the same and make an underground aqueduct from the well to their manse.

By p.s. and for ½ mark paid to the king in the hanaper.

Grant to Henry de Ingelby of the prebend of Southcave, in the church of St. Peter, York, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the archbishopric of York.

The like letters and mandates in favour of Maurice de Bocheford for the prebend of Beaubeg, in the church of St. Finbarr, Cork, in the king's gift by reason of the keeping of the lands and heir of Gerald de Bocheford, knight, tenant in chief, being in his hands.

Presentation of Robert Walteres of Iccombe to the church of Littin Compton in Hennemersh, in the diocese of Worcester, void by the resignation of John Paty, the last rector, and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Derhurst being in his hands on account of the war with France.