March 26. Westminster. Presentation of Thomas Huchoun of Pightesle, chaplain, to the vicarag of the church of Kirtlyngton, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of Aunay being in his hand on account of the war with France.

March 29. Westminster. Exemption for life of John de Cantebrig, citizen of London, because he is frequently attendant on the business of the king's clerk, Master Michael de Northburgh, and at the request of the latter, from being put on assizes juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator coroner, taxer or collector of tenth and fifteenth, or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will. By p.s

Feb. 12. Westminster. Grant to the prioress and nuns of Kilburn, out of compassion for their present excessive poverty, that for three years they shall be quit and discharged of all taxations, tallages, tenths, fifteenths and other quotas granted to the king by the commonality of the realm or otherwise, and of other charges and impositions affecting them by reason of their lands tenements and goods. By p.s

April 2. Westminster. Pardon to Henry Bever of Wardstanton, in consideration of his good service in Gascony in the company of Henry, late earl and now duke of Lancaster, of the king's suit for all homicides, felonies, robberies and trespasses in England to 14 October, in the twentieth year, and of any consequent outlawries. Renewed because sealed at another time by K. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas de Bokely, justiciary of Ireland, going to Ireland by the king's order to stay there about the office. By K. & C.

April 1. Westminster. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas de Bokely, justiciary of Ireland, going to Ireland by the king's order to stay there about the office. By K. & C.

March 20. Westminster. Commission to the same Thomas and John, archbishop of Dublin, the chancellor there, reciting that the king is given to understand that his own castles and the castles of others in Ireland now in his hands by reason of wardship or for other causes, by default and negligence of the constables and keepers of the same, are not duly guarded, that the keepers and constables do not find the men for the safe-guard of the castles whom they ought to retain therein according to the fees which they