1352.

June 22. Grant to Agnes le Shepherde of Warden of the keeping of a third part of 10 acres of land and an acre of meadow in Warden, late of Clement de Stoppesleye of Warden, tenant in chief, which by reason of the nonage of Henry, her son, kinsman and one of the heirs of the same Clement, are in the king's hands, to hold in aid of the sustenance of the said heir and her other children, during the nonage of the heir, with his marriage. By C.

MEMBRANE 21.

June 18. Ratification of the estate of John de Beryndon as parson of the church of Whelpyngton, in the diocese of Durham, that he be not disturbed hereafter by reason of any right or title the king could claim therein by reason of the lands of Gilbert Dumframvill, earl of Angus, being in his hands or in the hands of any of the kings that were before him. By K.

June 12. The like, of Master Thomas de Duncient as prebendary of Sydlesham, in the church of the Holy Trinity, Cicestre. By p.s.

June 18. Calling to mind the useful services long rendered by William de Bello Campo, the king, although such services would still be necessary to him in the direction of his affairs and very opportune, nevertheless in consideration of the estate of the said William now verging on old age and of his bodily weakness, which is such that he cannot labour longer without danger, has granted that from now he shall not be put in any office or commission against his will. By K. & C.

June 14. Pardon to Richard de Wyke of his outlawry in the county of Gloucester for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer touching a plea of Robert Watts that he render an account of the time that he was his receiver, on certificate by John de Stonore, chief justice, that he has now surrendered to the Flete prison.

Feb. 14. Grant, at the request of Guy de Bryan, to Joan late the wife of John del Isle of Gatecombe, who holds at farm of the king the manor of Lurdyngton for 10l. to be rendered in the king's wardrobe yearly, that she shall hold the manor without rendering anything, in recompence of the sustenance of John, son and heir of the said John, a minor, whose marriage pertains to the king, while the heir stays in her keeping unmarried. By p.s.

June 12. Writ of aid, during pleasure, for Adam de Grymaldeby, charged by John, bishop of Worcester, the chancellor, to provide things pertaining to the office of the poultry of the household of the chancery. By C.

June 18. Ratification of the estate of the king's clerk, William de Dalton, as prebendary of Ketne, in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, by the collation of John, bishop of Lincoln. By K.

June 16. Pardon to Augustine son of Richard Austyn of the king's suit for the larceny of two horses, to wit, one of William le Reve of Dersham, at Dersham, and the other of Rose late the wife of William Margarete de Dersham, at Yoxworth, whereof he is indicted, as the king has heard, and of any consequent outlawries. By K. at the instance of Bartholomew de Burghershe.