
The earlier portion, extending from 732 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1192—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.
