the provision of R. bishop of Cycestre, the chancellor, A. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, R. Marshal, earl of Pembroke, J. de Lacy, earl of Lincoln, and constable of Chester, S. de Segrave, justiciary of England, and R. son of Nicholas, the steward, will make with Idenevet, steward of the said L. and Werrenoc his brother, Inian Vachan, and David the clerk, touching amends to the king for all excesses and restitution on both sides of lands taken one from the other by reason of the late war; touching the assignment to David son of the said L. and Isabel his wife, first-born daughter and heir of William de Breusa of her portion of the lands of her father; touching the payment of such money for amends or assignment, the provision of sufficient security for performing faithful service to the king and observing peace towards the realm, and the amending of anything fresh which may arise pending the said provision. [Federa.]

MEMBRANE 8.

Dec. 7. Safe-conduct, until Sunday after St. Nicholas, for J. wife of Lewelin and David his son, the king’s nephew, and those whom they shall bring with them, coming to Shrewsbury to confer with the king.

Dec. 6. Appointment of Master Philip de Ardern as the king’s proctor in the cause which he has before the bishop of Ely and J. de Ferentin, archdeacon of Norwich, by papal delegation, in the church of S. Mary, Shrewsbury, on the morrow of S. Nicholas and if necessary on following days, against Lewelin for disturbing the peace of the realm, and the king has signified the same to the opposite party.

Dec. 8. Protection, until his return, for the abbot of Westminster, gone to the court of Rome on the affairs of his church.

Dec. 9. Exemption, for two years from Christmas next, of William le Estrange from being put on recognitions, juries, or assizes.

Dec. 11. Safe-conduct until Easter for Henry de Trublevill, in coming to England, staying there and going back again, saving to the king his castles, which the said Henry holds in Poitou and Gascony.

The like, without term, for him in coming to England to do right and receive right touching the seneschalcy of Gascony for the time that he has been seneschal, staying there and going back again.

Dec. 9. Licence for the abbot and convent of Furneis, and the monks there, to send a brother of the house to Ireland whenever this is necessary, who with others sent there from the abbey shall buy corn and other victuals to be carried to the abbey; and mandate to the justiciary (of Ireland) and all bailiffs and others not to do or permit anything to their hindrance.

Dec. 11. Appointment, during pleasure, of William son of Warin to the custody of the county of Hereford, with the castles of Hereford and Painscastle (castro Matildeis), the hundred of Wurnelawe and the king’s manors of the same county, so that he answer at the Exchequer for the ancient farm thereof, beyond the king’s demesne of Acornebury, which will remain in the king’s hands. Grant to him also for the custody of the said castles and county of the profit of the county and those things which pertain to the said castellamies; and besides this he shall take at the Exchequer, in time of peace, 100 marks, in time of truce, 100L and in time of war 200L.

The like to the barons of the Exchequer by letters close.
