H. bishop of Ely, who has made a fine with the king to have a charter of liberties, has letters begging his men for them to make him an aid to acquit the fine.

July 11.
Westminster.

Grant to Bernard de Grimesby of the prebend which Master Roger de Lacoc had in the church of Bruges; with mandate to the constable of that town to induct him.

Mandate to the official of the archdeacon of Canterbury to induct Bonacursus son of Engleskus and Amery Cosse, messengers of Nicholas, the pope's nephew, into the church of Eyneford in the name of the said Nicholas, to whom the king has given the church.

July 14.
Westminster.

Grant to Philip de Albinisco that if the lot of mankind happen to him before he has finished his pilgrimage to Jerusalem, whatever he has assigned or bequeathed before his death from the land of Periton, which he has of the king's gift (domo), and from the lands of Chuyedu, Bamton and Wyton, which he has of the king's gift (ballio), for discharge of his debts, or doing of alms, or pay for his knights and servants for their service, shall be established for three years after the day of his death, unless the king have previously surrendered the lands to the heirs of the same of his will or by agreement.

July 16.
Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Maurice son of Gerold, justiciary of Ireland, to maintain himself in the king's service, to the land of Gren, which Maud del Pundelarche held.

By Stephen de Sedgrave, the justiciary.

Presentation of Stephen de Sutton, kinsman of R. de Lexinton, to the church of St. Michael, directed to the dean and chapter of York.

[July 16.
Westminster.]

Pardon to Richard Ruffus of Roinges of his flight and outlawry for malo retto, wherof he was indicted, on condition that he stand his trial if any one will proceed against him.

July 18.
Westminster.

Protection, without term, for the prior and monks of Soillac, directed to the seneschal of Gascony.

July 27.
Westminster.

Presentation of Robert de Londen, chaplain, to the church of St. Michael, Gipeswich, in the diocese of Norwich.

Tento S. de Sedgrave, the justiciary.

Presentation of Ralph de Whatenwill on the resignation of Roger, parson of the church of Tangemere, to the said church, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to the official of the archdeacon of Canterbury.

Protection, without term, for J. de Columpna, cardinal, [and] Otto, Peter, John and Conrad his nephews, for their possessions and things in England.

July 29.
Westminster.

Safe-conduct for S. duke of Norway, going on pilgrimage to the land of Jerusalem, until his return.

Aug. 1.
Westminster.

On information that some armed men are journeying through England, contrary to the provision lately made before the king at Gloucester by the common counsel of the baronage that none should journey without the king's warrant, he has sent Henry de Trubevill, with knights and serjeants of the king, to arrest such men with their horses, arms, and harness; and all sheriffs and bailiffs are commanded to be counselling and aiding unto him herein.

By P. de Rivallis.