

1233.

Membrane 3—cont.

- Protection, without term, for the leprous brethren of the hospital of St. John, Sideburgbroc.
- Aug. 3. Safe-conduct, until Christmas, for the archbishop of Sens and the Westminster. bishop of Paris and those they bring with them, coming to England to treat of peace between the king of France and the king of England.
- Mandate to the tenants of the abbey of Furness to cause the abbot, their lord, to have an aid of a fortieth of their moveables, in the form in which the fortieth has been granted to the king elsewhere in England.
The like for the abbot of Roche.
- Aug. 3. Mandate to all knights, tenants of the honor of Arundel, on sight of Windsor. these letters, to come to the king at Oxford, provided with horses and arms.
- Grant to the citizens of London that they be quit of tallages for three years from the Assumption in this year with mandate to the mayor and sheriffs to require no tallage from them within that term.
By S. de Sedgrave, the justiciary.
[Cancelled.] Because the citizens surrendered these letters to the king.
- Safe-conduct for R. carl Marshal and his men, returning to Wales.
The like for carl Roger le Bigod and his men, going to their parts.
- Aug. 6. Royal assent to the election of Master John de Tauton, canon of Windsor. Kildare, to be bishop of that place; and mandate to L. archbishop of Dublin, to do his part in this behalf, certifying the king by letters patent of the confirmation of the election before he imparts to the elect the office of consecration.
- Aug. 6. Licence, until Whitsunday, for Nicholas de Anvers and William Windsor. Triparius of Barbeflet, to come to England to trade with their ship called The Ship of St. Mary, and with their things and merchandise to trade with.
By K. before the bishop of Winchester and the justiciary by William de Peretot.
- Presentation of William de Crioil to the church of Wudeton, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury, directed to the official of the archdeacon of Canterbury.
- Aug. 8. Grant, for three years from the Assumption, to the mayor, sheriffs and Reading. barons of London, of murage on goods coming to London by merchant strangers for export thence or for sale there.
- Aug. 8. Request to Gaillard Colum, Peter Colum, and Arnold Willelmi
Reading. Emerici, burgesses of Bordeaux, by the fealty wherein they are bound to the king, to lend him 200 marks and deliver them to Hugh de Vivonia, seneschal of Gascony; and the king will pay the amount in England to them or their messenger bearing these letters with their letters testifying the loan.
- Aug. 9. Mandate to the constable of the castle of Rocheford to deliver the said
Reading. castle to the king, delivering it to Hugh de Vivonia, seneschal of Gascony, as the king and his land of Gascony are very greatly damaged through the castle because it is not in his hands.
The like to Rostand de Solic, citizen of Bordeaux, lest by further detention of the castle the king incur further loss by the said Rostand, which the latter ought not to wish.