1234.
April 25. Kempton. In like manner Philip de Ascell[es] is appointed to the custody of the county of Lincoln.

April 25. Kempton. The prior and convent of Persore by Robert de Wygornia, sacristan, and Roger de Rudeby, chamberlain, of Persore, bringing the king news of the death of Gervase, their abbot, have letters of licence to elect.

April 30. Reading. Mandate to Henry de Kenelegh and Hugh de Milevill to do what Drogo de Barentin, to whom the king has expounded his will, will say to them from him touching the delivery of the castle of Ewyas, which has been in the custody of them and the said Drogo.

May 1. Reading. Appointment, during pleasure, of Germanus de Kaxton to the custody of the counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon; and mandate to those of the counties to be intendant unto him as their sheriff.

By K. Signification to W. bishop of Worcester, of the royal assent to the election of Roger de Rudeby, sometime chamberlain of Persore, to be abbot of that house.

May 2. Reading. Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert de Mapeldurham to the custody of the county of Berkshire, so that he answer for the issues immediately to the king; and mandate to those of the county to be intendant unto him as their sheriff.

May 3. Wallingford. Mandate to the king's Jews of Winchester to be attendant, during pleasure, unto Robert Passelewe as before they used to be unto Peter de Rivallis.

May 5. Oxford. Request to the barons of the port of Hastings to have at Portesmuth ten good ships of their service due to the king fitted out and furnished with good mariners and other necessaries, to be in the said port by Sunday before the Ascension, to cross with the king's people whom he is about to send to Brittany.

The like to the following;—
The barons of the port of Hethe, for five ships.
The barons of the port of Rumenell, for five ships.

May 6. Woodstock. Mandate to the seneschal of Gascony to let the abbot and monks of Garde-Dieu have two bushels of salt every Martinmas from the king's salt-pit of Bordeaux, which he has granted to them and their successors by charter.
The like to Hugh de Vyvons, seneschal of Gascony.

Appointment, during pleasure, of William Thalebot, to the custody of the castle of Bristol, together with Eleanor the king's kinswoman; directed to the mayor, good men and bailiffs of Bristol, and these are to be attendant unto the said William as their constable.

May 7. Woodstock. Signification to Geoffrey son of Geoffrey Ridel of Bleyve, Pacandus de Archiac, the messengers of W. le Arcvesque, J. lord of Berbezill, [and] Theobald Crespin, and to other messengers, who have come or are coming from beyond seas about the fees of their lords, that the king is sending to them Bartholomew Peche to signify to them his pleasure, together with Robert Passelewe, requesting them to patiently wait.