

1234.

Membrane 8—cont.

at a time when the king had granted all foreign merchants safe-conduct to the realm ; whereat he is greatly moved, as they had no mandate from him ; and to restore any things taken therefrom, or make satisfaction for the same.

- July 16. Westminster. Safe-conduct, for two years from Michaelmas in the eighteenth year, for William le Terrier of Barbeflet, with his ship called the Ship of St. Mary, coming to England to trade.
- July 16. Westminster. The like, for one year from that date, for Girard de Bleis, coming to England to trade. By K. for the archbishop of Canterbury.
The like for the following:—
Peter Baille.
Gayllardet de Lard.
Bernard de Nerac.
Ernadet Serjant.
- July 17. Westminster. Mandate to W. de Gaugy to deliver the castle of Sweinese, which was in his custody, to Richard Syward, to whom the king has committed it during pleasure.
Appointment, during pleasure, of the said Richard to the custody of the said castle, and mandate to all of the honor of Sweinese to be intendant unto him in all that pertains to that castellany.
- July 19. Havering. Pardon to William de Lacu of his flight and outlawry for the death of Peter de Dunington ; with the usual condition. By the earl Marshal.
- July 18. Havering. Licence for Bartholomew le Bygoth to let to farm for three years from Michaelmas in the eighteenth year, the land which he has de ballio regis in Affeton. By K.
- July 18. Havering. Grant to William de Vesey that after the death of Maud de Saucuzemar he may hold the land in Rodenham, which she holds in dower of the gift of William de Tyly, a Norman, sometime her husband, until the king restore the same to the right heirs of the said William by his will or by a peace.
- July 20. Havering. To E. archbishop of Canterbury. It is well pleasing to the king that Maurice son of Gerold, justiciary of Ireland, shall boldly and with full assurance commit himself and his men to the church of Canterbury for protection in coming to the king in England at his command to speak with him, and that the archbishop shall cause the king's letters patent to that effect to be made for him.
[Cancelled.] Because otherwise below.
Appointment, during pleasure, of Adam Esturmy to the custody of the king's castle under Lyme, and mandate to Stephen de Segrave to cause the same to be delivered to him.
Mandate to the tenants of the honor of Newcastle under Lyme to be intendant unto him as the king's constable and their bailiff.
- July 22. Westminster. Mandate to Hugh de Stocton, treasurer of the house of the New Temple, London, to deliver 300 marks, which he has in deposit of the king's treasure, to Hugh de Patheshull, the treasurer.