between earl Gilbert and the magnates of Ireland and England, and the king releases to the said Gilbert and his brothers the indignation he had against them on the said ground.

Grant to Ralph de Picheford, or his assign, for a fine of 300 marks, of the custody, during the minority of the heirs, of the land and heirs of John son of Derement (sic), with the marriage of the heirs.

To the justiciary of Ireland. The king has granted to William de Radecliffe, king's chaplain, that as soon as there is an opportunity by reason of any dignity in Ireland being void and in the king's hands, there shall be assigned to him by L. archbishop of Dublin, 15 marks of rent; and he commands the justiciary not to hinder the archbishop herein.

By W. de Kirkeham, dean of St. Martin's, London.

Safe-conduct for a ship of the prior of Plymton called Le Hole of St. Mary of Plymton; going beyond seas for wines, salt and other necessaries for his maintenance.

Licence for William le Machun, merchant of Leoyre, to come to the king's dominions with his ship to trade.

The like for John Beringer of Leoyre.

The like for Ralph de Berners for two years from Michaelmas.

Notification to the good men of Winchester that the king has given his assent to the election of Nicholas de Kyvilli, citizen of Winchester, as mayor of Winchester and that the said Nicholas has taken his oath to the king touching those things that pertain to the mayoralty; and mandate to them to be interendant unto him as their mayor.

Grant to the goodmen of Winchester that they shall hold the said city at farm for two years from Michaelmas next, rendering at the exchequer of Michaelmas term 80l. by tale, as they used to render formerly.

Grant to William de Radecliffe, king's chaplain, of the tithes of the demesne of the manor of Tetebiry, void and in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of John de Brausa; and presentation of the said chaplain to the bishop of Worcester with a request that he will admit him to the tithes and cause him to be put in possession of them as has been done at other times.

General protection, until his return, for the abbot of Kirkested, gone to the Cistercian chapter. By W. bishop of Carlisle.

Exemption for life of Agatha de Cockefeld from suits of counties, hundreds and wapentakes. By the said bishop.

Mandate to the sheriffs of Sussex and Notingham to cause these letters to be read in their counties and to permit the said Agatha to have the said liberty.

Appointment of Geoffrey de Turevill, archdeacon of Dublin, to the custody, during pleasure, of the treasurership of the Exchequer, Dublin, with mandate to M. son of Gerold, justiciary of Ireland, to give him seisin thereof, admitting him as treasurer of the king in Ireland ad hoc.

Mandate to Eustace de Leveland, chancellor of Chichester, or his assigns in Ireland, to deliver to him the treasure and the rolls of the said Exchequer and all other appurtenances of the Exchequer, which are in the custody of Eustace.

By the same words afterwards a mandate was sent to P. de Ryvallis.

Writ de intendendo for him directed to the barons of the Exchequer, Dublin.