Presentation of Philip de Sabaudia to the church of Hyldedon in the diocese of London, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Evesham.

Writ of computate to the barons of the Exchequer to allow the bailiffs of York in the farm of their town every year during the life of William Malecure 4d. 11s. 3d., that is, 3d. a day, which the king has granted to him for life by the hands of the said bailiffs, in lieu of a place which he held of the king in Kingestoftes in York until the king gave it to the Friars Preachers to enlarge their place there.

Grant to him of the said sum.

Mandate to the bailiffs to pay it.

Mandate to the assessors and collectors of the fortieth in the wapentake of the Northriding, co. York, to meet at a certain day and place to assess and collect the fortieth from the land of Richard de Percy, in the said wapentake, which remains to be assessed and collected by the said Richard, who then prevented it but now has granted that it shall be collected. The king has commanded the sheriff of York to cause all the men of the land of the said Richard to come before them for this purpose.

The like to the collectors and assessors of the fortieth in the wapentakes of the Westriding and Estriding in that county.

Presentation of Master William de Kilkenny to the church of Wurfeld, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield.

The like of Peter de Piperun, clerk of J. de Ferentino, archdeacon of Norwich, the pope's chamberlain, to the deanery of Lynn, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Norwich; and letters were directed to the official of the archbishop of Canterbury, and to Robert de Sholindon, guardian of the said bishopric, to induct him.

Royal assent to the election of Walter de Weston, monk of Croyland, to be abbot of Croyland. He has letters directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

Appointment of Roger son of Osbert, Ralph de Runeham, Walter de Ingeham and Richard Butler with the sheriff of Norfolk as wardens of this Yarmouth fair, and keepers of the peace therein.

Writ de intendendo to the good men of Yarmouth, and all persons coming to the said fair.

Writ of aid to the sheriff of Norfolk.

Royal assent to the election of Richard, prior of Carlisle, to be abbot of Evesham; and this is signified to the pope that he may do his part herein.