1237.

Oct. 30. Woodstock. Presentation of Thomas de Newerch to the church of Bliclinge, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Norwich; directed to the official of the archbishop of Canterbury in that diocese.

Presentation of John, chaplain of Master Nicholas de Farenham, to the church of Cnolle, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heirs of G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester.

Nov. 3. Woodstock. Acknowledgement that William Talebot surrendered to the king at Wudostok, on Tuesday after All Saints, the castle of Gloucester and Eleanor the king's kinswoman, safe and sound. [Federat.] Mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of Gloucester to give credit to Thurstan le Despencer, sheriff of Gloucester, for bread, wine, meat and fish, to the use of the said Eleanor until St. Andrew next, and when the king knows the amount thereof, he will cause it to be paid.

Licence for Erkinus, merchant of Kirke-cut-briet, to go safely to Ireland with his ship to bring therefrom corn and other victuals to the land of R. de Quincy, earl of Winchester, of Kirke-cut-briet.

Nov. 9. Reading. Writ de intucendo to the tenants of the abbey of Thorneye in favour of Richard, sometime prior of Depping, to whom the rule of their abbey has been committed with the approbation of O. cardinal deacon of St. Nicholas in Carceri Tulliano, papal legate, as the said cardinal has informed the king by letters praying for restitution of the temporalities, dated at London, on the nones of December (stir), the king having given the royal assent to the same.

Mandate to P. de Bedintun, guardian of the said abbey, to give him seisin of all the lands and possessions of the said abbey.

(Schedule.)

Nov. 12. Woodstock. Grant to Thomas Buscel of the escheat of the whole land which William Hunger, who abjured the realm for larceny, held in Witteneya, which belongs to the king by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester.

Membrane 11—cont.

Nov. 14. Westminster. Grant to William de Culeworth of 20l. a year at the Exchequer to maintain himself in the office of justice in the Bench, so long as he be in that office by the king's order and it shall please the king.

Nov. 17. Westminster. Mandate to the archbishop of Dublin and M. son of Gerold, justiciary of Ireland, whom the king at another time empowered to give licence for the chapter of Ardflert to elect a bishop and to give the royal assent to such election when made, as they have not yet given the royal assent to the election of Brandanus, provost of Ardflert, to be bishop, to give the same, or, if there be any just cause of impediment herein, to signify the same to the king without delay.