her of the earl's inheritance in the said county, the king will likewise make up to the said John and Defforgilla the residue within forty days after it come into his hands, if he should wish to retain the same in his hands. And if the king or his heirs fail to make them this exchange, the king will surrender to them her inheritance in the county of Chester, and then the manors of Ludingeland and Torkeseye, with the farm of the town of Yarmouth, which in the meantime the king has handed over to them in tenancia, shall revert to the king and his heirs.

Presentation of Master Atte, clerk of the legate, to the church of Heyles, in the diocese of Worcester.

Feb. 8. Mandate to the earls, barons and knights about to assemble at Kempton, Dunstable on Tuesday before St. Peter in Cathedra to tourney there not to presume to tourney until Lent.

Feb. 10. Appointment, during pleasure, of Sampson de Bremegrave to the custody of the bailiwick of the forest of Fekenham with the bailiwick which Ralph de Aundevill had in the same forest.

Grant to Bartholomew le Bigod of the custody during the minority of the heirs of the land and heirs of Thomas le Ake, with the marriage of the heirs.

Feb. 11. Exemption for life of Master Richard, the king's cook, for the good and faithful service to the king which he has done all his life, from tallage on his goods, merchandise and tenements in the city of Winchester or in other the king's cities and boroughs wherein he shall happen to have tenements or merchandise.

MEMBRANE 9.

Feb. 12. Mandate to the knights and all the free tenants of the son and heir of Roger son of Paynto to make the aid for the marriage of his eldest daughter which the said Roger, prevented by death, had not had from them, to Margaret late his wife, on condition that that aid be not converted to other uses.

Feb. 16. Extension of the term for taking murage for the town of Bristol for three years from Midsummer next.

Feb. 21. Grant to the king's sister Joan, queen of Scots, if the lot of mankind befall her, of all the issues of the manors of Stanton and Driffield for two years from Michaelmas next, to make her will of. [Fidem.]"}

Feb. 23. Grant, for faithful service done by Hugh le Despenser, to Hugh, his son and heir, that by the counsel of his friends he may marry where it shall seem best for his promotion.

Grant to Geoffrey le Despenser (Dispensario) that when the lot of mankind befall Hugh le Despenser his brother, he shall hold as keeper until the age of the sons and heirs of the said Hugh the manor of Ryhal, which he has of the king's gift, and also the lands which the same Hugh held of the earl of Chester in the county of Chester and without.

Feb. 24. Presentation of Reginald de Sancto Leodegario, nephew of Peter de Russellis, to the church of Pimpre, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of Richard de Clare being in his hands.
The like of Thomas de Newere to the church of Leake, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Durham.

[Canceled.] Because otherwise below.