Protection for Simon de Norwico so long as he be on the king's service.

Mandate to the assessors and collectors of the thirtieth in the county of Cumberland to cause all the money which they have received for Trinity term to be carried to Durham and to deliver it there to John son of Philip, guardian of the bishopric of Durham; and the king has commanded the sheriff of Cumberland to let them have carriage and safe-conduct for this.

The like to those of the counties of Westmoreland, Northumberland and Lancaster.

Extension of the term of the murage of the town of Gloucester, granted for three years from Midsummer, 19 Henry III, until three years from the Apostles Peter and Paul, 22 Henry III.

Pardon, at the instance of the legate, to Laurence the clerk of Hertefend for the death of Godfrey the Miller, whom he killed by misadventure, and for his flight for the said death, and his escape from the prison wherein he was detained on that account; with the usual condition.

Protection, without term, for Dolfmus, burgess of Livrepol, merchant, with his ship and merchandise.

To the knights and free tenants in the bishopric of Winchester.

Whereas the king may rightly, according to the custom observed hitherto in void cathedral churches, assess a reasonable aid upon the lands belonging to such churches, he wills that upon the lands of the void bishopric of Winchester a moderate (unaevable) aid be assessed; he requests them, therefore, in the presence of Paulinus Peyvre and Thomas de Neuerwerk, guardians of that bishopric, to make him a competent aid, that he may have reason to be grateful, a moiety to be paid at Michaelmas next and a moiety at the following Easter.

In like manner is written to the citizens and burgesses, tenants of the bishopric, at Winchester.

Notification of the prorogation of the truce with L. prince of Aberfrau and lord of Snauodon for one year from St. James the Apostle, 22 Henry III, for the observance whereof the king has caused Henry de Aldithele, John Lestrange, Master Simon de Steyland and Master William de Kylykeny, king's clerks, to swear on his soul.

Mandate to the said L. to keep the said truce, as Edeneuet Vachan, Eynan Vachan, D. archduacon of St. Asaph's, and Philip son of Byvor have sworn before the king on his behalf and on his soul to keep it.

These letters were close.

On the dorse of the roll is written the form of the letters of Llewelyn.