Membrane 11—cont.

1241.

to appeal for the privilege granted to the king by the pope, to wit, that prelates and other magnates of the realm shall not be drawn into causes beyond seas.

Safe-conduct, until Easter, for A. archbishop of Armagh, primate of Ireland, going to Ireland.

Prohibition of a tournament to be held at Cambridge on Tuesday after the Epiphany.

Mandate to Mereuduc son of Owen in no case to do his homage to any person but the king for the barony which he holds and ought to hold of the king, or to answer for the same to anyone except in the king's court before the king or before his steward.

The like to Maylgun son of Maylgun, Rees the Younger (Junior) and the bishop of St. Davids.

Exemption of Henry Mauveisin from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, so long as he be of the household of W. earl of Ferrars.

Writ of liberate to the treasurer and chamberlains for 20l. to be paid yearly to William son of Ernisius for life, at the four terms, the king having granted him that sum for his maintenance.

Power to John Lestrange and Henry de Aldithele to conduct David son of Llewelin and those with him in coming to the king at Worcester.

Jan. 10. Windsor.
Notification to the barons of the Cinque Ports that the king has given power to H. de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, to make amends for (ad emendandum) trespasses and plaints arising in their liberty not amended by them.

Jan. 11. Windsor.
Promise to the good men of la Róele to pay to them at Midsummer the 80 marks remaining to be paid of 1,010 marks which the king owed to them for the loss of their houses in the building of the king's castle of la Róele and for the loss of their houses and things on the entry of the king's brother R. earl of Cornwall and Poitou, when the said town was surrendered to him.

To the count of Flanders and Hainault, the king's uncle. The king is sending his servants Wilbert de Kancia and Richard his marshal, the bearers, to the fair of Lagny sur Marne (Leyni super Marne) to buy things and merchandise there to the king’s use, and because by reason of the danger of the roads he thinks they ought not to carry money, he begs the count to let the count's merchants pay for them to the amount of 1,000 marks, and he will repay them at the day and place appointed by the said king's servants.

[Cancelled.] Because the letters were surrendered.

Request to Peter Rikewaud to let them have a loan to the sum of 500 marks for the same purpose, and the king promises to repay the same in like manner.

The like to Arnold Bernad for 500 marks.

Grant to Master John de Dyn of 20l. a year payable at the Exchequer at Easter and Michaelmas, until the king provides him with an ecclesiastical benefice.