Protection, until his return, for Walter de Godarvill, gone to Ireland as the king's envoy.

Royal assent to the election of John de Blosmenill as abbot of Abbendon; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him.

Mandate to Peter de Bedinton to give him seisin of the abbey.

Mandate to the justiciary of Ireland and G. de Turvill, treasurer of Ireland, to assign to Walter de Godarvill, whom the king has sent to Ireland to keep the lands of Walter de Lacy, a fixed sum at the Exchequer of Dublin, or a parcel of the said lands, for his maintenance.

Mandate to the same to let Walter de Brion have 100s. of Michaelmas term next for his yearly fee.

Protection for one year from Easter for Andrew Miles and Gynes Genevensis et Nolensis, at the instance of the king's kinswoman Berengaria, queen of Castile and Toledo, in going through Gascony to recover their ship, and the goods in her, said to have been taken from them in the sea of Spain.

W. de Havervhull, W. de Sancto Eadmundo, and Peter Grimbaud have been appointed with Jeremiah de Kaxton, Peter Schaceporc and William Haudel to assess a tallage of 20,000 marks upon the Jews of England.

Grant to Peter Schaceporc of 50 marks a year at the Exchequer for his maintenance until the king provide for him in an ecclesiastical benefice of equal value or more.

Grant to William Synagun that he shall hold for life the land of Osmundeston, which the king previously granted him, during pleasure, for his maintenance on the king's service.

Mandate to Robert de Ros, justice of the forest, to sell by view of foresters and verderers and other freemen the whole of the underwood in the king's demesne hays and demesne woods, which are in defence; wherever this can be done without deterioration thereof, and to answer for the same at the Exchequer; and by oath of the same to make fixed metes and devises between the king's demesne woods and other foreign woods adjoining, so that it may clearly appear which are the king's own and which those of others. He is also to enquire touching wastes made in the king's demesne woods and assizes in the time of his predecessors, whether those who held the said wastes or now hold them, have taken anything beyond what was granted to them, and if he find anything so taken, to take that into the king's hands and make his profit thereof. He is also to forbid all the king's bailiffs of his demesne manors near the forest to permit any of the king's beasts to enter the demesne hays or woods which are in defence to feed therein, and if they do this against such order, to amend the trespass according to the custom of the forest.
