The king, at the presentation of the prior of Lewes, has taken Simon de Waltham, monk of Lewes, as prior of Pritelewoll, as the right of patronage of that priory belongs to the king by reason of the honor of Essex being in his hands; and William son of Richard, keeper of that honor, is commanded to let him have free administration of the priory.

Mandate to William de Breusa that, in accordance with the form provided between the king and D. son of L. sometime prince of North Wales, he shall let Philip Hareng have such seisin of the manor of Penmaen as Peter Hareng his father, whose heir he is, had on the day when he was disseised thereof by the war waged between King John and the said L.

Presentation of John de London to the church of St. Faith without Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester; directed to the archdeacon of Winchester.

To the abbot and convent of Tychefeud. It has been shown to the king on behalf of the abbess of Fontevrault, that Nicholas de Ambresbiri, her proctor, has handed over to their custody the whole land which the abbess had in the town of Pralingwurth, with a mill and other appurtenances, and also her mills and rents in the town of Portesmue, with some chattels of the price of 20 marks, in such wise that on a certain day appointed between them and the said Nicholas, under certain conditions contained in their letters, which the king has inspected, the said lands, rents and mills shall remain to them by the bond of sale, if the king will give his assent to the said sale. As however the king has determined that the said conditions and sale are by no means reasonable, he will in no wise give his assent to the sale, and in testimony thereof has caused these letters patent to be made.

Protection until Christmas, 26 Henry III, for Master Odo de Cyriton.

Writ of liberate to the treasurer and chamberlains to pay to Master Henry, clerk of the king's uncle, Thomas, count of Flanders and Hainault, 20 marks a year at the Exchequer of Michaelmas; until the king provide for him in an ecclesiastical benefice of 60 (sic) marks or more.

Grant to the said Henry as above.

Appointment of Bartholomew Peche, with those he shall associate with himself, to sell the crops of the king's demesnes in the counties of Buckingham, Northampton, Worcester, Gloucester, Southampton, Wilts and Dorset; and mandate to the bailiffs and good-men thereof to be counselling to him herein to the king's profit.

Writ of liberate to the treasurer and chamberlains to pay Peter de Cranton 80 marks this Easter term, his yearly fee granted to him at the Exchequer of Easter until the king provide for him otherwise; and in like manner 30 marks every Easter.

Grant to the said Peter as above.

Mandate to the abbot of Gervaus to answer for the fee farm of the manor of Estwyton to the king's uncle Peter de Sabaudia, to whom he has given the honor of Richemund, and not to Peter Boterel as the king remembers he commanded them to do; the latter being now a liege of the count of Brittany.
