1242.

To Matthew Picard. The king mainprises for Gerard Talebot that the king will pay the 10s., which Gerard owes to Matthew, and will pay him out of the first money that comes from England, and requests Matthew to acquit Gerard thereof and to betake himself to the king for the same.

Bond to John de Sunevill, who has remained in the king's service with two knights, in 60 pounds of Bordeaux to be paid to him out of the first money that comes from England, to buy one horse of the king's gift. And grant to him that if he lose his lands by reason of the king's service, the king will give him 60 pounds of Bordeaux yearly, if his lands are worth so much, until he recover them or the king make him an exchange of other land to that value.

Grant to Arnald de Sunnevill who has come to the king's service, that if he lose his lands by reason of such service, the king will give him 20 pounds of Bordeaux yearly, if his lands are worth so much.
The like to Emery de Sunnevill for 30 pounds of Bordeaux.

Bond to Arnold Comen, who came to the king's service with two knights, in 60 pounds of Bordeaux to be paid to him, out of the first money that comes from England, to buy a horse of the king's gift. And if he lose his lands by reason of the king's service, the king will give him yearly 100 pounds of Bordeaux, if his lands are worth so much, and the king will give to Peter Bernardi, his knight, 27 pounds 10 shillings of Bordeaux yearly, and to Gerard Malebeste his other knight, the same sum yearly, if his lands are worth so much, until they recover their lands, or the king make them an exchange of other lands to the above values.

Mandate to the archbishop of York and the bishop of Carlisle that if they cannot provide Geoffrey de Wuleward with a prebendal benefice, as the king has given him power to do, he shall confer upon him any other ecclesiastical benefice in the king's gift of the value of 60 marks, if the said Geoffrey will accept it in place of the said prebend.

Licence, at the instance of the vicomte of Fronzak, for Raymund Buke, burgess of Fronzak, to lade two ships with wines of the vintage of 26 Henry III, to wit, 105 tuns in each ship, and to take them where he will, one voyage, and back. By John son of Geoffrey.

Bond to Guy de Stisac, who has stayed in the king's service with two knights, Geoffrey de Stisak and Viger, his brothers, and seven mounted serjeants from the Sunday before Martinmas this year, during pleasure, to remember them according to their service, as soon as the king's money comes from England, so that they shall be content.

The like to R. vicomte of Fronzak in 80 pounds of Bordeaux and 20 marks sterling to be paid at St. Andrews next, lent to the king at La Sauve. By Hugh de Vivona.

The like to Bernard de Boeull, who will stay in the king's service with nine knights, from the day before Martinmas until St. Andrew's day; both days included, in 19l. sterling to be paid for the wages of himself and his knights.
The like for:—
Arnald de Myremaunde with nine knights, and Menesecus de Comund.