Afterwards the king granted to Peter de Rosetto, citizen of Bayonne, that he might hold the said land for that term by lease of the said Halengrat, to whom he gave 68 marks for the lease.

MEMBRANE 23.

Bond to John Maunsel, to whom the king committed the custody of the land of Gascony and the isles of Oleron and Ré, in whatever he reasonably spends in the said custody from Martinmas, 27 Henry III, onwards, as well his own expenses as the wages of sergeants and balisters and others, accordingly as it may be necessary to retain and take with him more or less for the custody thereof.

Grant for life to John de Sancto Emilione, king's carpenter, who lost his right foot in the king's service, of the custody of the gate of the castle of Bordeaux, and of the works of the said castle, with 12 pence of Bordeaux daily for the maintenance of himself and his wife; and yearly at Christmas 6 pounds of Bordeaux to buy robes for themselves, to wit, 60 shillings each, of the custom of the city of Bordeaux.

Mandate to Herbert son of Matthew, seneschal of Gascony and other seneschals for the time being to pay the said sum out of the same customs.

Nov. 13. Bond to William de Chenay in 22 marks to be paid out of the first money that comes from England, for one horse which the king received from him to the use of Arnald de Boevill.

The like to William de Vivona, in the king's service with four knights, for his wages from Wednesday after Martinmas, 27 Henry III until St. Andrew, both days included.

The like to Arnald de Boevill, lord of Duraz, who will stay in the king's service with nine knights.

Safe-conduct until St. Andrew for Poncius de Ponte, Geoffrey de Mauritania and Elias Gumbaud of Conac, and those they bring with them, coming through the king's power to speak with Hugh de Vivona.

The like for Owen de Berbezill, coming to speak with the king.

Exemption for four years of Isaac, Jew of Bordeaux, from a rent of 50 pounds of Bordeaux which he owes yearly, in lieu of 4,000 shillings of Bordeaux, which Elias de Bleynak owed to him, and of which the said Jew quit-claimed the said Elias by order of the king, on the following condition. Rostand de Solo, Sancho de Regula (Seintum de Regulani) and John de Portu, to whom the king committed that rent for eight years for the debt which they paid for him to Peter Columb, citizen of Bordeaux, but which at the making of these presents they had only received for three years, shall receive the said rent for five years from next Easter; at the end of which time the king wills that the said Isaac and his heirs be quit thereof for the four years next following, and after that be answerable to the king.

Nov. 14. Charter, granting to John son of Geoffrey the manor of Waddon, which H. earl of Arundel surrendered to the king of the lands of Normans, to hold to him and his heirs as freely and wholly as William de Humeth held it in homages and services of free men, chases, and other liberties and free customs belonging thereto until the land of England and the land of Normandy are one, and doing the service due for the same.
