1242.

Membrane 29—cont.

Grant also to him that if the king or his heirs should surrender it to the right heirs when the said lands become one, the king will not disseise him before making him or his heirs a reasonable exchange in escheats in other lands to the like value. Witnesses:—William Langespee, Hugh de Vivons, John de Grey, Robert Tregoz, John de Plesseto, Nicholas de Molis, John de Lessint[on], Paulinus Peivre, Nicholas de Bolevill, Richard de Clifford, Walter de Luyt[on] and others.

Mandate to the sheriff of Buckingham to give him seisin thereof.

Nov. 15. Bond to Arnald Mainsent, citizen of Bordeaux in 200 marks, which the king received from him as a loan, to be paid at Christmas or before if the king's money comes from England.

Licence for him to lade one ship with wine in the water of Charente of the vintage of 27 Henry III, and to take it to England or elsewhere in the king's power, but not to land of the king's enemies; until the ship returns to its own parts.

Grant, at the instance of A. bishop of Bazas, that Raymond de Pinibus and Donatus his brother, nephews of the said bishop, may receive henceforward what the bishop used to receive from the custom of the city of Bordeaux for the debt which the king owes to him for Henry de Trullevill, as is more fully contained in the letters which the bishop has, until the king is quit of the said debt.

Bond to the said Raymond and Donatus in 5,000 shillings of Bordeaux which the king received from them as a loan, to be paid out of the first money that comes from England.

[Cancelled.] Because otherwise below.

Mandate to Richard Bauzan to attend to the affairs which John Maunsel will let him know of on behalf of the king.

Bond to Geoffrey Rydel of Blaye in 50l. of his yearly fee of 100l., and 250 marks of the 500 marks which the king granted to him to strengthen his town of Blaye, to be paid out of the first money coming from England.

Nov. 20. Protestation that Nicholas de Bolevill has delivered the 3,000 marks committed to him to carry to H. le Lézinan, count of La Marche and Angoulême, and which he has delivered.

Licence for John de Plesseto to dispose of, give, let to farm or bequeath all his lands and other goods which he has of the king's gift as well wards, marriages and other things, and for him to make his will thereof; and grant that the executors of his will have free disposal of the said goods for the execution thereof.

Nov. 26. Mandate to the justice and good men of Bazas, and all other tenants of the bishopric of Bazas to admit William de Boel[es] to receive to the king's use seisin of that bishopric.

Safe-conduct, until the octave of St. Andrew, for William Vyger and Richard de Conak, who had come to La Réole to speak with the king, for themselves and their men.

Nov. 28. Bond to the prior of La Réole in 50l. sterling to be paid out of the first money that comes from England for 5 tuns of wine bought to the king's use, to wit, 10s. a tun, and 17 pounds of Bordeaux for 20 cunkis (54lbs.) of wheat, bought also to the king's use.