

1244.

Membrane 5—cont.

H. earl of Ulster her husband in Ireland, except the earldom of Ulster which he is to keep whole in the king's hand. Also if the countess should have to plead for any land or tenement belonging to her in Ireland, let justice be given to her from fortnight to fortnight until the plea is terminated.

May 23.
Westminster.

Notification that at the great instance of R. bishop of Lincoln, the king has given to him Adam de Marisco, a prisoner in the prison of York for a robbery committed against merchants from beyond seas at Staunford and Graham, on condition that immediately upon his delivery from prison he enter some habit of religion and forthwith depart the realm.

Mandate to the sheriff of York to deliver him to the bishop or his messenger.

Acquittance to William de Cantilupo, to whom the king committed the island of Lunday and which he has surrendered to the king at his mandate, from the custody of the said island.

May 25.
Westminster.

Request to the chancellor of Amiens, judge delegated by the pope, not to fatigue William de Haverhull, the treasurer, unum non solum de magnatibus sed de majoribus regni, possessor of the church of Stotesdon, who has been cited by Master Stephen Hamball by letters surreptitiously obtained from the Apostolic See to appear without the realm contrary to the privilege granted to the king by the Apostolic See, the king having appointed Master Robert de Shardelawe, king's clerk, as his proctor in this matter, with power to appeal, if necessary.

Restitution to Roger de Monte Alto, steward of Chester, of the manor of Mold, on condition of his appearing upon reasonable summons in the king's presence, David son of Llewelin being called on the other side, and if the king or David or anyone for the king cannot show that his father or grandfather quitclaimed to Llewelin father of the said David, to his grandfather or the said David their right in the said (sic) castle of Mold, then the said Roger shall possess the said castle for ever. If the contrary is shown, then the said Roger shall bind him and his heirs by letters patent to surrender the said castle at the king's mandate, to the king or his heirs, unless in the interval the castle be lost by war or other occupation. The said Roger having made the king letters patent accepting these conditions, his other letters for surrendering the castle at the king's will are to be without force. [See m. 5d.]

Bond to R. earl of Cornwall, the king's brother, to pay him at Michaelmas next, out of the first moneys of the Exchequer, 500 marks of the 1000 marks which he lent the king, and which the king should have paid last Easter, but the earl respited the same.

Mandate to J. Lestrangle, justice of Chester, to deliver the castles of Blauncinuster, Clun and Shrewardin to John son of Alan.

The like to Geoffrey de Langele touching the castle of Arundel.

May 28.
Westminster.

Licence for John Maunsel to receive the lands late of H. earl of Arundel in the manor of Bilsinton from the heirs of the earl, whether by gift or by sale.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to respite until a fortnight after Michaelmas to Robert de Gysnes the demand of 4*l.* 40*d.* for divers scutages.

[Cancelled.] Because on the Fine Roll.