

Membrane 9—cont.

1245.
Nov. 25.
Wallingford.      Presentation of John Maunsel the younger to the church of Lugwurthin directed to Master J. Bacun, official of the bishop of Hereford.
- Mandate to John de Grey, justice of Chester, to let the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Giles, Chester, have the tithe of the king's larder of Chester as they used to have in the times of the earls of Chester and the king.
- Dec. 3.
Windsor.      Mandate to Robert de Turbervill, steward of the lands late of W. Marshal, earl of Pembroke, in Ireland, to deliver to John son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, all the lands and castles late of the said earl in Ireland; as the king ought to have primer seisin of the lands of barons dying, who hold in chief, so that they may do what they ought in homage and relief; to hold the same until Anselm Marshal, brother of the earl, come to the king to do what he ought.
- The like to the constables of the following castles:—
- |                         |   |   |
|-------------------------|---|---|
| Nicholas de Molis       | { | Penbrok.Haverford.Kirkarran.Tinibeye. |
| Walerand Teutonicus     | { | Strygoyl.Uske.Karliun.                    |
| The sheriff of Hereford | { | Castle Goodrich.Trilleic.                     |
- Dec. 4.
Windsor.      Mandate to J. son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, and the treasurer of Ireland to let John Bysset have 50 marks of the gift of the king.
- Dec. 4.
Windsor.      Exemption, for life, of Wymund de Ralegh from suits of counties, hundreds and wapentakes and from being put on assizes or juries.
- Dec. 4.
Windsor.      Bond to the mayor, jurats and commune of Dax in 50*l.* payable at the exchequer of Easter next of the 100*l.* which the king has granted them for the walling of their town.
- Safe-conduct until St. Peter's Chair for the envoys of the king of France whom he is sending to England with Henry de la Mare and Master Robert Anketil.
- The king is sending the said Henry and Robert to the presence of the king of France, to complete the prorogation of the truce, as has been arranged by envoys passing between them, with full powers.
- Dec. 7.
Windsor.      The king, at the instance of the citizens of Bayonne, has received Bernard de Liposse into his grace and granted that he be admitted into the commonalty of that city, and that all his possessions, lost on account of the king's indignation, be restored to him in the said city.
- Dec. 10.
Windsor.      Pardon to Hugh de Whetstan of his outlawry for the death of William the Smith of Cosseby, as it appears by inquisition that he killed him in self-defence; on the usual condition.
- Dec. 27.
Merton.      Appointment, during pleasure, of William de Curzun to the custody of the county of Lincoln, and mandate to archbishops and others to be intendant to him as sheriff.