1246.
March 30. Presentation of James de Kewurth to the church of Kingscler, directed to W. bishop of Winchester.

Royal assent to the election of Geoffrey, sacristan of Malmesbury, to be abbot of that house; and writ de intendendo to the tenants of the abbey.

Mandate to H. de Malo Lacu and W. de Axemuth to give him seisin of the said abbey and all the lands belonging to it.

April 3.
Westminster. Acknowledgment of the receipt from Richard de Munfichet of the castles of Hertford and Colecestre on Tuesday, 3 April, 30 Henry III; and discharge of him from the custody thereof.

April 6.
Westminster. Royal assent to the election of Baldwin, cellarer of Tyfford, to be prior of that house, which assent belongs to the king by reason of his custody of the land and heir of W. earl of Warenne; with mandate to the bishop of Norwich to do his part herein.

Acquittance to Imbert Pugeis in respect to the castle of Hadleg, which the king had committed to his custody and he has surrendered to the king.

April 11.
Merton. Grant to Robert le Norreis of the custody, during the minority of the heirs, of the land and heirs of Robert de Sancto Georgio, with the marriage of the heirs, and of whatever belongs to the king of the marriage of Pernell late the wife of Robert, if she will marry again.

Protection with clause volumus for Adam de Coceud, who has gone to Ireland with John son of Geoffrey on the king's service, so long as he be there.

April 12.
Merton. Pardon to John le Vadlet, who abjured the realm for the death of Martin Malherbe, of the king's suit for the said death, on the usual condition.

Prohibition of a tournament to be held at Gudeford on Monday after the octave of the Close of Easter; and the abbot of Waverle and the prior of Neweerk are sent to make the prohibition.

April 16.
Merton. Presentation of Nicholas Talebot to the church of Hyntesham; directed to the bishop of Norwich.

April 20. Windsor. Grant to R. earl of Cornwall, that when he dies the king will betake himself for any debts to his heirs and will let his executors have free administration of all his goods.

Grant to Geoffrey de Wuleward, whom the king is sending on his service to Ireland, that after he has stayed there a year or two, he shall not stay there any longer but may freely return.

Mandate to J. son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, to provide for the said Geoffrey in an ecclesiastical benefice of the value of 100 marks a year, or two of that value, when opportunity offer.

Grant to the said Geoffrey of 60 marks a year at the Exchequer of Dublin so long as he be on the king's service in Ireland, and afterwards at the Exchequer in England, until the king provide for him in an ecclesiastical benefice to the amount of 100 marks.

Mandate in pursuance to the said justiciary and G. bishop of Ossory, treasurer of Ireland.