Grant that a precedent shall not arise to the prejudice of the church of Salisbury by reason of his grant to R. bishop of that place, if Agnes de la Ferere be elected to be abbess of Shaftesbiry, because of the suspicion which the king had of her that she was sprung from the race of a traitor, to wit, that a king's clerk should take part in the examination of her election and of her person when elected.

MEMBRANE 2.

The king has taken the homage of all the heirs of Walter Marshal, earl of Pembroke, for all the lands which he held in chief and which fall to those heirs by inheritance, and it is commanded to Walerand Teutonicus to let the said heirs have seisin of all the said lands in Netherwent, of the castles of Striguyl, Usk, Castle Goodrich and Carliun, which were in his custody.

The like is written to Robert Waleraund touching the earl's lands in Penbrokeshire, and the castles of Penbrok, Haverford, Seint Cler and Kylgarran.

Bond to provide for Master Geoffrey de Feringes in an ecclesiastical benefice of 50 or 60 marks; and power to W. de Eboraco, provost of Beverley, and John Mansell, chancellor of St. Paul's, London, to make that provision in the king's name, as soon as opportunity occurs.

Request to John de Gyzors, mayor of London, to cause to be delivered to Richard le Rus 200 marks, which he promised as a loan to the king by John MannSeattle to pay the liveries of the king's serjeants, as a prest to the king until the quinzaine of Michaelmas.

Grant to Robert de Creppinges and his assigns of the wardship, during the minority of the heirs, of the land and heirs of Robert de Ohauncy, with the marriage of the heirs and all escheats that could fall in if the king kept the said wardship in his own hands.

Pardon to William Kyng' of his outlawry for the death of Ralph de la Grave, as it appears by inquisition that he killed him by misadventure in self-defence, the said Ralph running upon a lance which William held in his hand; on condition that he make peace with the relations of the deceased and stand his trial if anyone will proceed against him.

Presentation of Humbert de Ascitiis to the church of Ribecestre, void by the resignation of Guy de Russiullu and in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of J. sometime earl of Lincoln; directed to J. le Romayn, archdeacon of Richmond.

Protection, without term, for the master and brethren of the house of St. Edward on the bridge of Berewik.

The prior and canons of Carlisle have licence to elect, by G. and W. their fellow canons.

Bond to the executors of the will of S. sometime archdeacon of Wilts, for the payment three weeks after Michaelmas of 23l. 4s. 3d. for the stock and utensils late of the archdeacon at Tissibiry, retained to the use of Aymner the king's brother and clerk, now parson of Tissibiry.
