1246.

Mandate to J. son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, and G. bishop of Ossory, treasurer of Ireland, to deliver to the messenger of the abbot of Be of the Cistercian order, bearing the letters of the king and of the abbot, 60 marks for the satisfaction of losses sustained by the abbey through the king's people in the capture of the island when the king last passed through it in going to Gascony.

Request to the barons, knights free tenants, and the whole commonality of the county of Chester, although they assert that they are not bound to conduct victuals to Wales for the munition of the king's castles, and never did so in the time of Earl Randolf and his predecessors, of their grace to do so this time with J. de Grey, justice of Chester, and this shall not prejudice them as a precedent against the charters of the said earls.

Grant to the brethren of the infirm of St. Thomas, Merleberg, and their successors of 50s. a year at Michaelmas out of the issues of that manor by the hands of the bailiff of Merleberg, for the maintenance of a chaplain celebrating divine service for the soul of Isabel, sometime queen of England, the king's mother.

A writ is directed to the barons of the Exchequer to allow the 50s. to the said bailiff.

Ratification of an assignment by Fulk de Castro Novo to Adam de Basinges, citizen of London, of 160 marks which the king granted to Fulk to be received within two years by the hands of the bailiffs of Staunford.

The dean and chapter of Lismore have licence to elect, by Christian de Chaunery, canon of that church.

Pardon to Adam le Pur, of his outlawry for non-appearance when appealed in the county of Wilts by Reginald le Rus of Henton, co. Wilts, of breach of the peace, as it appears by inquisition that he was going to appear when he was frightened by someone saying that if he did so he would be hanged or imprisoned at the least.

Aug. 18. Woodstock.

Exemption for life of A. countess of Penbrok and Leicester, the king's sister, from the payment of 30l. a year, which she used to pay at the Exchequer for the fee farm of the manor of Wexcumb, which she holds in dower of the lands of W. Marshal, sometime her husband.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer not to cause her to be distrained for that farm henceforward.

Protection, until Michaelmas, for David son of Gervase [ap Jorwerth] and his fellows, bringing the stock of Isabel late the wife of David son of Llewelin from Wales to the land of the earl of Gloucester.

Aug. 20. Woodstock.

Safe-conduct, until the morrow of Midsummer, for the envoys of Owen son of Griffin and Llewelin his brother, coming to the king.

The king has taken the homage of Res son of Res Wachan, and as he, his brothers and men are in the king's fealty, it is commanded to all to let them go where they will.

Royal assent to the election of Thomas, dean of Achonry (Archeand'na), to be bishop of Elphin; with mandate to M. archbishop of Tuam to do his part herein.
