Although the dean and chapter of Elphin made this election without obtaining the king’s licence, yet because of the danger that would threaten that church, the king has thought fit to grant his assent to the election, on condition that his grace do not prejudice him or give them the prerogative of electing without the king’s licence.

Grant to Beatrice, countess of Provence, the king’s mother, as regards the 400l. formerly granted to her to be received from the lands late of John de Veteri Ponte for six years from Easter, 28 Henry III, that she shall receive the same every year until the majority of the son and heir of the said John.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Mandate to the prior and convent of Carlisle to be intendant to the countess for the 400l. of the farm of the said lands.

Mandate to all sheriffs on this side the Humber and Trent not to intermeddle in any wards, or escheats falling to the king in their counties, but to permit Henry de Wingeham and his co-escheators to administer the same.

Grant to Master Robert Anketil of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer, until the king provide for him more fully in an ecclesiastical benefice, according to the king’s letters patent of provision which he has.

And he has a writ of liberate thereof.

Grant to William Bataille, the king’s clerk of the chapel, of the prebend in the chapel of St. Juliana late of Adam Dubleteste, deceased; with mandate to the sheriff of Salop to give him possession thereof.

Power, until Michaelmas, to Nicholas de Molis to conduct Maylgon son of Mailgon to the king.

Mandate to Griffin son of Wenunwun not to allow any harm to come to the said Maylgon or his men in his land, and if the said Maylgon, in coming or going to the king, wishes his wife and domestic household to be received in his land to allow no harm to come to them ; and on the return of the said Maylgon, even though he should not have peace from the king, to permit him, his wife and household to leave his land and go where he will.

Licence for John Maunsell to give or sell to whom he will the wardship during the minority of the heirs, of the land late of John le Pocr in Ireland, with the wardship and marriage of the heirs.

Mandate to John son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, and the treasurer of Ireland, to collect all the money they can, with what they now have, and send it as soon as they can to Chester.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John de Grey, justice of Chester, to the keeping of the castle of Dissard; with mandate to Philip le Bret, constable of that castle, to deliver it to him with its whole equipment (wartestura).