Royal assent, in the name of Peter de Geneve, who has the custody of the land late of William de Albiniaco, patron of the priory of Offinton, to the election of Walter de Crek, one of the canons, to be prior of that house; with mandate to the bishop of Lincoln to do his part herein.

Mandate to the said Peter's bailiff of Bouyer, after the confirmation of the said Walter, to give him seisin of the lands belonging to the said priory, and to restore to him any goods of the priory which he may have taken.

Mandate to William de Cheenay to deliver the whole land and castles of Leinster, which he has in custody, to John son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, to keep during pleasure, and to return quickly to England.

Mandate to the justiciary to receive the said land and castles, and keep them until further order.

Mandate to the justiciary and the treasurer of Ireland to collect all the money they can and send it to the king in England by the said William under safe-custody.

Protection without term, for Mabel Bacun, sister of Master Robert Bacun, who dwells within the metes of the forest of Savernak.

Inasmuch as for the common utility of the land of Ireland and the unity of the king’s lands, the king wills, and by his common council it is provided that all laws and customs which are kept in the realm of England be kept in Ireland, and that the said land be subject to the said laws and be ruled by them, as King John, when he was last in Ireland, appointed and commanded to be done; as also the king wills that all writs of common right which run in England shall likewise run in Ireland under the king’s new seal, it is commanded to archbishops and others that for the peace and tranquillity of that land they permit them to be ruled and led by the same laws and that they follow the said laws in all things.

Grant, for life, to Jacob brother of Elias le Evesk, Jew of London, for his service to the king and queen in sitting at the Exchequer of the Jews, of the houses late of Joceus de Coleestre, Jew of Lincoln, in Oxford, which came to the king’s hands as escheats, at a rent to the Converts of London of 10s.

Mandate to the sheriff of Oxford to give him seisin thereof.

The prior and convent of Carlisle, inasmuch as S. de Everdon, archdeacon of Chester, would not assent to the election made by them as it seemed to him to be vicious, have licence to elect again by the said prior and Alexander and Randolf, his fellow-canons.

Presentation of Master Laurence de Sancto Martino to the church of Lampetermaur, in the king’s gift by reason of his conquest of the lands of Mailgun son of Mailgun in South Wales, directed to the bishop of St. Davids.

Pardon to Adam de Cleipol, clerk, of his abjuration of the realm for a wound which he gave to Henry Bracebrugg, as it appears by inquisition that the said Henry has recovered; on condition that he make his peace with the said Henry and stand his trial if anyone will proceed against him.

Presentation of Henry de Cantuaria, chaplain, to the church of Hoton in the Forest, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Carlisle; directed to the archdeacon of Carlisle.
