Membrane 1—cont.

- Mandate to J. son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, and the treasurer of Ireland, to pay to Richard de la Rokele at Michaelmas next, his yearly fee of 20*l.* which he used to receive at the Exchequer in England at that term by writ of liberate.
- Sept. 27. Exemption, for life, of Master Elias, cook of the king's children, from Windsor. suits of counties and hundreds, and from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions.
- Exemption, for life, of Sibyl Giffard from suits of counties and hundreds.
- Oct. 2. Mandate to W. Teutonicus, to whom the king committed during Windsor. pleasure the castles of Wigemore, Keventhles and Cnuclays, and which were delivered to him by Paulinus Peyvre, to deliver the same to Richard de Dovor, to whom the king has committed them during pleasure.
- Oct. 11. Pardon to Roger de Beling, clerk, of his outlawry for the death of Westminster. Alan de Pleyford, on the usual condition.
- [Oct.] 17. To R. bishop of Salisbury. He will remember that it was agreed Westminster. between the king and him to remove all suspicion of Agnes de Ferrariis, nun of St. Edward's, Shaftesbiry, elected to be abbess of that house, and said to be a blood relation of W. de Mariscis, the traitor, that the king's clerks, Master Roger de Cantilupo and A. le Seculer should take part in the examination of the election and person of the said elect, to see that the examination was conducted canonically. The king, however, has appointed Master W. de Poywic as his proctor and is sending him to the said bishop to do and see what behoves the king touching the said election, and to appeal if necessary.
- Presentation of Master Henry de Campden to the church of Gosebec, in the king's gift by reason of his seisin of the manor of Gosebec because Richard de Gosebec, [lord] of the said town and rector of the said church, ravished (ravit) her who was the wife of William le Breton against the king's peace, and married her (et cum ea contraxit); directed to the bishop of Norwich.
- Mandate to the constable of the castle of Egremund to deliver that castle to Robert de Creppinges, or his messenger bearing the king's letters.
- Presentation of William Juvenal to the church of Waleby, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Jolland de N[eville]; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.
- The like of Martin de Purleg to the church of St. James, Shaftesbiry, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Shaftesbiry; directed to the bishop of Salisbury.
- Oct. 19. Bond to Clarus, merchant of Florence, in 500 marks, payable on Westminster. the morrow of All Souls next, for 500 marks which he paid to [Thomas] de Sabaudia, sometime count of Flanders, for his yearly fee.
- Mandate to Res son of Cadugan to deliver to John de Monemuta the castle of Dynavor, which was in the custody of him or of Maud de Breus', to keep during pleasure.
- The king, at the instance of Guy de Palude, rector of the church of Geitinton, belonging to the king's patronage, grants that a vicarage to the value of 10*l.* [be made] in that church which a parson having first been presented to the bishop of Lincoln by the said rector, shall possess solely for ever.
