Membrane 5—cont.

1247.
May 23.
Westminster.

Licence for Robert de Gysnes to impark his wood of Tholeshunt called ‘Shyricheshull,’ which has been of antient time a closed park, notwithstanding that it is within the metes of the forest of Essex.

Mandate to William de Acre, sheriff of Cumberland, and William Hayrun, sheriff of Northumberland, to assess the tallage of the king’s boroughs of Newcastle on Tyne, Bamberg and Corbrug and upon all his drenges and theynes and all his demesnes in the county of Northumberland.

Writ de intendentio to the said burgesses, drenges, theynes and other tenants of the king’s demesnes in the same county.

Presentation of William de Plessetis to the church of Craefergus; directed to the bishop of Connor in Ireland.

Pardon, at the instance of the abbot of Westminster, to Henry de Bosco for the death of Agnes del Brok; with the usual condition.

The like to Petronilla late the wife of Richard le Pouere for the death of the same.

Mandate to the justices in eyre in the county of Oxford to let them have peace hereof, unless anyone, beyond the king’s suit, proceeds against them.

Grant, for life, to Hugh de Prissay of 80 marks yearly at the exchequer of Michaelmas, to maintain him in the king’s service.

Grant to Edmund de Lascy of the manor of Hauton for his maintenance until he come of age; with mandate to J. de Grey, justice of Chester, to give him seisin.

Grant to him that he shall hold all his castles and lands which the king delivered to the archbishop of York at farm, of the king, until he come of age, by the same farm by which the archbishop hold them; with mandate to the archbishop to give him seisin of the lands and castles with all the issues from the beginning of May last, because the said Edmund ought to answer the king for a full year.

Mandate to the archbishop to restore to him all the animals with the ploughs and other things which the archbishop received when he received the lands at farm, saving to the king the price of the animals since dead.

Presentation of Nicholas de Bleys to the church of Tadingeston: directed to the bishop of Norwich.

June 1.
Windsor.

Grant to Hugh Chacepork and his heirs by Gwydona his wife, the king’s kinswoman (consanguinea), for his homage and service, of a yearly fee of 30 marks at the exchequer in England at Michaelmas.

May 26.
Westminster.

Grant to Guy de Lezian and his heirs by his lawful wife, for his homage and service, of 800 marks yearly at the Exchequer in England, or if the king be beyond seas, at the wardrobe; until the king provide for them in wards, escheats, or some marriage to the value of 300 marks.

June 7.
Windsor.

Bond to Felinus de Florencia and Richus Deudewardi and their fellows, merchants, in 500 marks, which the king borrowed for the wages of his serjeants at arms, payable at the exchequer of Michaelmas next.

Grant, for life, to Simon de Prysehay of 15 marks a year at the exchequer of Michaelmas, for his maintenance in the king’s service.