Whereas the king has resumed into his demesne the towns of Winchelsea and La Rye with their appurtenances according to metes and bounds made by his order, for a suitable exchange which he made for them to the abbot and convent of Écampa, he grants nevertheless that the abbot and convent shall possess for ever the yearly pension of 13 marks due of ancient time, which they used to receive from the church of La Rye when they held that town, together with the title of a fourth part of the marsh called ‘Northmarays,’ which is within the metes of the said town, as they used to do; provided that nothing further accrue to them on account of the said pension and title.

Grant for life to Geoffrey Tyre net of 20 marks yearly at the exchequer of Michaelmas for his maintenance in the king’s service.

Promise of indemnity to J. Mansel, provost of Beverley, W. de Haverhill, the treasurer, and Edward de Monasterio, who have mainpered for the king to pay to Fulinus and his fellows, merchants of Florence, 500 marks at the exchequer of Michaelmas next, which the king borrowed from them to pay the wages of his sergeants at arms.

Grant to R. earl of Cornwall, the king’s brother, that new money shall be made in England, and that he shall cause it to be made in the king’s name for five years, on condition that the king and his heirs have a moiety of the profit of the exchange (camblitio) or mint (monete), and the earl, his assigns or executors, shall have the other moiety; saving to him and his assigns the money (penaio) which he shall lay out in making the said mint. Grant also that the king and his heirs will hold and cause to be observed the compacts, rules (leges) or covenants which the earl may think fit to make touching the said mint.

Presentation of Master Vincent, fellow and master of Aymer, the king’s brother, to the church of Waleshal; directed to the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Presentation of linger de Pondeburg to the church of Carlaton; directed to the elect of Carlisle.

Acknowledgment of the delivery in the wardrobe by the king’s order by John son of Geoffrey, justiciary of Ireland, of 601l. 8s. 10d. of the treasure of Ireland to Peter Chacepork, keeper of the same wardrobe, on Monday, Midsummer Day, at Marlborough.

Letters of credit for Bartholomew Pecche, whom the king is sending as his envoy beyond seas, for 20 marks.

The like for Drew de Barentyn.

Grant to Stephen de Salinis of the custody of Isabel, daughter and one of the heirs of William de Monte Acuto, and of a moiety of his land, her inheritance, with her marriage.

MEMBRANE 4.

Quitclaim to Emery de Cancellis of all bailiwicks, which he held of the king at any time, reckonings, and arrears of account, of all plaints and demands by reason of any of the bailiwicks, and of all debts due on account of the same bailiwicks, for 100l. to be rendered to the king at the Exchequer at the terms granted to him.