Signification to the said Simon that Gaston de Byarn has put himself in the king's mercy and the king has remitted to him all his rancour and pardoned him and his adherents (valtoribus) all damages and homicides done to the king and his men on account of the war; and mandate to the said Simon not to move war against him or his adherents or molest him, knowing that the king's will is that his bailiffs and subjects be intimate (familiares) and friends with them as before.

The like directed to all bailiffs and others.

Notification that, although the said Gaston has done homage to the king and to Edward his firstborn, without the land of Gascony, the king would not that, because that homage was done without the said land, prejudice arise to Gaston or his heirs.

Simple protection, for two years, for John de Hybernia, gone to Ireland on the affairs of Reginald son of Peter and Alice his wife.

Grant to Aaron, Jew of York, that his wife and sons and heirs shall have a third part of his rents, possessions and goods wherever they may be in the king's land, after his death, on condition that they pay the king 200 marks a year until they have paid the king the value of the said third part.

Licence for Artald, king of Man, to come to England to speak with the king, and safe conduct for him in so doing until Michaelmas. [Footera.]

Exemption of John de Busceby from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions so long as he is of the king's household.

Grant to Artald de Sancto Romano of the wardship of the land which Maud de Clerc lately held in chief in Bromlegh, during the minority of the heir.

Protection without term for the brethren and sisters of the hospital of St. John the Baptist, Andevre.

Presentation of Aubrey de Fiscanno to the church of Paycherch, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Peterborough; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

Pardon to William son of Robert Malenfant of his outlawry for the death of William de Paxton, on condition that he make peace with the relatives and stand his trial if anyone will proceed against him.

Exemption for life of William de Ossau, merchant of Gascony, from all prizes of wides throughout England save the ancient prize of one tun before the mast and one tun behind the mast, in every vessel on condition that if he avow other goods than his own these letters shall be void.

Grant to Geoffrey Gacelin of the wardship of Margery daughter and one of the heirs of Walter de Godarvill with her marriage, and the wardship of the moiety of the land of the said Walter, which pertains to her, during her minority.

Mandate to the abbot of Strata Florida to pay the 25 marks due at Easter next of the fine which he made with the king for his debts, to the wardens of the works at Cardigan, for the said works.