MEMBRANE 154

1253.

The following, who have gone on the king's service to Gascony, have letters of protection simple for so long as they are in his service there:—

John de la Bruere.

Wigan le Bretun.
Bartholomew le Bigod.
Geoffrey de Bello Campo.
Baldwin de Rumely.
Nicholas de Molis.
Nicholas de Bolevill. Afterwards the clause \textit{volumus} was added.
William de Hastencot.
William de Trulevill. Afterwards the clause \textit{volumus} was added.
George de Buevill.
Drew de Barentino.
Thomas de Seynz.
Philip de Lond [on].
John de Stappel'.
Robert de Ponton.
Hugh de Vivona.

Appointment of Robert Walerand a justice to hear and determine all court entries between Walter de Milton and the burgesses and sheriff of Oxford. With mandate to the sheriff of Oxford to &c.

To the mayors, and bailiffs of Winchester, Salisbury and Wilton; the king is sending Master Richard the Cook, king's serjeant, to those parts to make purchases against Easter, commanding them to aid and counsel him.

The like to the mayor and bailiffs of Oxford and the bailiffs of Warwick, Banbury and Abendon in favour of Master Paulinus de Baumpton.

\textit{Memorandum} that Bernard Prosperini, Frederick Orlandi, James Offreduc', Riccho Deutigardi and Godfrey Reynery, for themselves and their fellows, merchants of Siena, have bonds of John Mansell, provost of Beverley, Peter Chaceporc, archdeacon of Wells, William de Kilkenny, archdeacon of Coventry, John de Grey, Philip Lovell, Edward de Westmonasterio, and Henry de Wengham, for 750 marks, 18s. 4d. being reckoned for every mark, payable to the said merchants within a fortnight of Michaelmas, 37 Henry III, at the New Temple, London.

Maynetus Spine, Spinellus Simonetti, Auguchio Guyberti and Gerard Rikoldi for themselves and Rustikellus Cambii, Huguchio Simonetti, Karlins Guiberti, Reinald Huberti, and others their fellows, merchants of Florence, have like letters of the said John Mansell and the others aforesaid for 600 marks, payable on the same day.

Deutaittus and Lotteryus, brothers, sons of William, and Walter Marcill, their fellow, citizens of Florence, for 100L. payable at the said date.

MEMBRANE 14d.

Appointment of Henry de Bathonia and Robert de Briuues to enquire by jury of the counties of Oxford, Nottingham and Lincoln, who came with horses and arms into the pasture of W. archbishop of York, upon the Trent opposite his manor of Lann and assaulted his men keeping his beasts there, and killed some, and led some to the manors of B. bishop of Lincoln, of Stowe and imprisoned them and still keeps them in prison; and those whom they find guilty they are to cause to be attached, taken or imprisoned by the sheriffs. The sheriffs are to provide juries.