1253.

Grant for life to Ernald de Monte Pesato of 50 pounds of Bordeaux yearly from the king's chamber at Michaelmas in the name of a fee for his maintenance in the king's service.

The like to Ernald Garsie de Fossato of 40 pounds of Bordeaux a year.

The like to Simon de Freincourt of 10 marks of sterlings a year.

Mandate to Ernald Caillau, Raymond Monader and Raymond Makayn, out of the 500 pounds of silver which the king yesterday caused to be delivered to them at Bordeaux to make the king's money of, to deliver to Walter, clerk of Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, the bearer, 200 marks to do what the king has enjoined upon him.

In the margin. 'For Simon de Monteforti, earl of Leicester.'

Grant to the said Walter that the ship of Sandwich called Bayonets laden with wines, be quit of prise this time, saving the king's just prise.

Grant to Peter de Monte Forti that when the king returns to the realm he will cause justice to be done to him touching that parcel of wood called the park of Ridelinton and touching parcels of the woods of Stowode, Fridwel, Harethornes, and touching parcels of the woods of Huppingliain under Biaumund, which are within the metes of the forest of Rotelaund; so that if by the inquisition which the king shall cause to be made, or by any other means, by judgement of the court he recover the said parcels, the king will restore them to him, or by his own arbitrament make him a reasonable exchange to the value thereof.

Protection with clause for Brian de Burmingehain, so long as he is on the king's service in Gascony.

Grant to Philip Marmiun that he may pay oft at the rate of 10L a year all the debts due from him to the king on Thursday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, 87 Henry III, as well arrears of his account for the time that he was sheriff of Warwick and Leicester as other debts.

Protection with clause for Hugh de Boeles, so long as he is on the king's service in Gascony.

To the knights, burgesses and others of Landarun. The king thanks them for the pursuit of his enemies and is sending Geoffrey Gacelin and other his serjeants with him to strengthen the castle of Lannadrain and to make war against the town of La Roële and other the king's enemies by their counsel, and to defend them; and commands them to give their counsel and aid herein as the said Geoffrey shall inform them.

Mandate to the knights, serjeants, soldiers (stipendiariis) and others with Peter de Sabaudia and John de Grey, seneschal of Gascony, to be attendant to what these and P. Chaceporc, king's clerk, shall enjoin upon them about the munition of the castle of Millan, so that the king may not have to betake himself to them by reason of their default.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Bernard de Seigniau [in the margin Seignians] to the prévôté of Entre les Deux Mers, so that he be always intendant in everything pertaining thereto to the seneschal of Gascony; with mandate to the knights, burgesses and others dwelling in Entre les Deux Mers to be intendant to him.

Grant for life to Peter Roberti of 10 marks a year from the chamber at Michaelmas, in the name of a fee for his maintenance in the king's service.
