Membrane 11—cont.

May 21. Grant to John de London, clerk of Edward the king's son, for his services to the king and his children, that his messuage in the town of Windesore and his houses there, built or to be built, shall be quit of all livery of marshals.

May 24. Protection with clause, until Easter, for the prior of Lewes, gone beyond seas on the affairs of his house. By K.

Pardon to Ralph Ruting' of Wurhostede for the death of Peter de Richemund, as it appears by inquisition made by Laurence del Brok that he killed him in self-defence.

May 25. Grant to the convent and prior of Abendon, for a fine, that, when their abbey fall void by the cession or death of John de Blornesvyle, they shall have for this time the keeping of the abbey during the whole time of the voidance and receive all the issues thereof as well in tallages of their men as in lands and other things.

Exemption, for life, of Geoffrey de Burdeleys from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions and from being made sheriff, coroner, escheator, forester, verderer, agister, regarder or other bailiff of the king, against his will.

May 25. The like of Bartholomew Baynard.

Grant to Bertram de Palicio, merchant of Toulouse, for a fine, that for five years from Whitsunday he may bring into England 300 tuns of wine yearly quit of prise except the king's right prise.

The like, for three years from Whitsunday, to Forto Muliner, merchant of Toulouse, for 800 tuns yearly.

Simple protection, for five years from Whitsunday, for the said Bertram.

The like, for three years from Whitsunday, for the said Forto.

Protection, without term, for brother Jordan de Eston, hermit, in the western corner within the walls of the city of London.

Extension for another five years to the bailiffs and burgesses and other good men of Scardeburg of the quayage granted to them for five years from the Assumption, 36 Henry III.

Confirmation of a lease for six years by the king's clerk Master Nicholas de Plumton to Henry de Cramarvill of his whole land in Gravehend, held in chief.

Exemption, for life, of Henry de Farle from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff, coroner, escheator, forester, verderer, agister, regarder or other bailiff of the king, against his will, and licence for him to hunt the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat in the forests of the county of Southampton.

May 29. Respite, for three years, from Whitsunday to George de Birlingham, for a fine of half a mark of gold, from making himself a knight.

Grant, for life, to brother Jordan de Eston, of the hermitage in the western corner near Cripelgate within the walls of the city of London, with the building and other appurtenances, which King Richard, the king's uncle, granted to Warin his chaplain.