Membrane 7—cont.
tallages of their men as in lands and other things that could belong to the king by the said voidance, so that no bailiff of the king shall enter therein; saving to the king the advowsons of churches belonging thereto, and wards and escheats of knight's fees, if any fall in, saving also the services of the knights who hold of the abbey, to go with the king in the army in Wales.

Exemption, for life, of Agnes late the wife of Stephen Bauchan \[in the manjin--Baucean\], in consideration of the services of her husband to the king and Edward his son, from suits of counties and hundreds, and from view of frank pledge for her own person wherever she holds lands in the realm; and protection for her, and her men, lands and possessions.

Safe-conduct, until Michaelmas, for John de Acre, son of the king of Jerusalem, and for the queen of Scotland \[(Scotye\] his consort, going through the king's power to Scotland, and their household.

This letter was given to Master Gilbert de Milliers; so that before giving it to them, he should receive from them their oath that they will not do or procure any harm against the king of England or the king of Scotland in their said journey. \[Filera.\]

Presentation of Master Rostand to the church of Horncastre, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Carlisle; directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

Pardon at the instance of W. bishop of Worcester, to Henry de Strafford, tailor, for the death of Robert de Kemeseye, as it appears by inquisition made by William Trussel, justice appointed to deliver the galo of Warwick, that he killed him in self-defence.

Mandate to the sheriff to deliver him from that prison.

Protection, with clause, until Michaelmas, for Hugh le Bigod, going to Galicia as the king's envoy.

Mandate to William de Gloucester, goldsmith, to pay, out of the money received by him to purchase gold for the king's use, to Artald de Sancto Romano, keeper of the wardrobe, 1000 marks for the expenses of the king's household, and to make other purveyances against the expedition into Wales.

Protection, without term, at the instance of Henry de Castell', king's kinsman, for Thomas Harang and his lands and possessions.

Grant, at the like instance, to Alemandin de Roys and Hugh his brother that they may have 200 tuns of the wine which they bring to England quit of all prise except the king's ancient prise every year for three years.

Protection, with clause, for the prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England, gone beyond seas, until his return or until another prior general in England shall be substituted in his place.

Mandate to Alan la Zuche, justiciary of Ireland, the bishop of Ossory, treasurer of Ireland, John de Bronigfald, the chancellor, and Master William de Bakepuz, escheator in Ireland, that whereas last year the king commanded the treasurer and Richard de Rupella, then justiciary,