1257

Aug. 6. Chester.

The abbot of Evesham.
William de Dyve of Dadington.

The abbot of St. Benet, Hulme.

By Walter de Merton.

Aug. 23. Rhuddlan in Camp.

Of those having protection with clause to endure so long as they be on the king’s service in Wales:

- Richard Alencun.
- Roger Richard.
- Maurice de Berkele.
- Richard de la Chaumbre.

Sept. 15. Chester.

Of those who stay at Chester and on the March of Wales on the king’s service and have protection with clause so long as they be there on the king’s service:

- Hugh de Wodecote.
- Thomas Boterei and John de Lee.
- Robert Blundel.
- David de Monte Alto.
- Nicholas de Hastinges.
- Fulk de Orreby.
- John le Strange the younger.
- Batholomew de Briencon.
- Fulk son of Warin.
- Robert Tregoz.

Aug. 8. Chester.

Notification that the king has admitted to his grace David son of Griffin and all his men coming with him to the king’s peace and service:—

grants to them of their life and members, and remits to them their trespasses against him to this date. He grants also to the said David that he will labour for the liberation of Owen his brother, and so soon as he shall be delivered, the king wills that he be entirely free from prison, paying that which his kinsmen and friends formerly offered the king and his friend for his deliverance. Further the king grants to the said David and Owen that they have their recovery of the lands and inheritances which they had before, doing to the king all the services due for the same, on condition that if the king wishes to retain anything in the said lands, he shall have it by reasonable exchange to the said David and Owen in that part which Llewelin son of Griffith, their brother, now holds, or elsewhere. Also he grants to the said David the cantred of Dercencho for the receiving and maintenance of him and his until he obtain his own lands or the lands of his brother Owen or of the adverse party.

By K. Edward the king’s son, W. de Valencia, John son of Geoffrey, Philip Basset, Robert Walerand, Peter de Monteforti and Griffin de Brunfeld.

[Cancelled.]

This letter was surrendered at Wenlok, by the chaplain of Griffin ab Muddok, on Tuesday the eve of St. Matthew the Apostle, and forthwith torn up (sancta) by the chancellor, because by this letter nothing was done, as the said David did not come.

Membrane 3d.

Aug. 25. Abergale in Camp.

Power to Urian de Sancto Petro to admit to the king’s peace all the Welsh who will come in, except certain persons whom he is specially