Appointment of Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, and Nicholas de Hauno, as the king is informed that his brothers, or others in their names, have secretly carried out of the realm a great sum of money beyond the sum granted to them by the king and the peers of the council, to enquire thereof in the counties of Essex, Hertford, Middlesex, Sussex and Kent and let the king and council know what they find: and the sheriffs are commanded to provide juries.

Appointment of Roger de Tuchewyk, Fulk Travers, Ralph son of Simon, Bartholomew le Turnour, Peter son of Simon, and Nigel de Bosco, to keep the manor of Brehull, from the Assumption, 42 Henry III, until Michaelmas following, so that they answer at the Exchequer for the farm thereof for that period.

Simple protection, without term, for the prior and convent of Lupeuld whose church is of the king’s foundation.

The like, for five years, for the wardens of the bridge of Walingford.

The like, for seven years, for the leprous brethren of the hospital of St. John the Baptist, Stonistratford.

The dean and chapter of Lincoln have licence to elect, by Master R. the treasurer, M. archdeacon of Buckingham, R. archdeacon of Huntendon, and G. de Thane, canons of Lincoln, coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter.

Grant to the prior and monks of the priory of Lichfield, founded by the king’s predecessors, for five years from the Nativity of St. Mary, 42 Henry III, of free chimingage throughout the forest of Whitlewode, as well for the timber, firewood (busca) hay-wood (clanstura) given to them in this time, as for their demesne wood in the said forest: with mandate to the foresters, and others not to vex them contrary to this.

By the justiciary and others of the king’s council.

Whereas, at the instance of the Friars Preachers of Gloucester, the king lately sent Henry de Bathanon to make provision and ordinance concerning an obstruction made by the prior and convent of Launthony, of the way leading from the Friars’ house in Gloucester to the water of Severn, below the king’s castle of that town, which way the Friars obtained long since by the king’s collation; the king accepts and confirms the provision and ordinance made by the said Henry for the advantage of the said Friars.

Commitment, until further order to Richard de la Rokele, serjeant, of the bailiwick which Ellis de Tyngewyk and certain other foresters had in the forests of Whitlewode, Selveston and Salcey, who are indicted of trespasses therein, because of which the king is unwilling that they should intermeddle therein for the present; with mandate to the verderers and other ministers of the forest to be intendant to him.

Protection, without term, for the warden and brethren of the hospital of St. Martin, Periho.

Notification that the king has inspected a letter obligatory of Queen Eleanor to the abbot and convent of Certeseye upon a loan of 550 marks made to her by Rucceus Cambii, Luterius Benincas’, Reyner Abbatis and their fellows, citizens and merchants of Florence, for which sum the abbot and convent are bound to the said merchants for her; and has confirmed the same, promising to save them harmless in respect of the same.