Royal assent to the election of Master Richard de Gravesende, dean of Lincoln, to be bishop of that place; with mandate to the archbishop of Canterbury to do his part herein.

Bond to the Friars Preachers of Canterbury in 32l. which by order of the king they have laid out in their buildings in Canterbury in honour of St. Edward the King, the king's patron saint; and promise to pay this by a month of Easter next.

Commitment to Peter de Monte Forti of the houses of William de Sancta Ermina in the city of London, to lodge in until the return of the said William from beyond the seas.

Mandate to Walter de Wassingley and Adam de Aston to restore the temporalities of the bishopric of Lincoln to Master Richard de Gravesende, whose election as bishop has been confirmed by the archbishop of Canterbury; saving to the king the arrears and debts remaining due to him of the time that the bishopric was in his hands.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

To the sheriffs of Gloucester, Worcester, Northampton and Oxford.

At the presentation of the abbot of St. Denis in France, the king has admitted Benedict, monk of the said church of St. Denis, to the rule and cure of the priory of Derhurst, and the temporalities of the same; and therefore he commands them to let him have full administration of these.

Protection without clause, for five years, for the master and brethren of the hospital for lepers of St. Sepulchre's, Retford without Stafford.

The prior and convent of Abbeystow have licence to elect an abbot, by Roger the sacristan and Paul the precentor coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter.

Grant to the Carmelite Friars of York of an area of land, 6 perches in length by 4 perches in breadth, without the wall of their court towards the stone cross at York, for the enlarging of their court; as it appears by inquisition ad quod damnum, made by the mayor and bailiffs of York, that this is not to the king's prejudice except that he will lose 12l. a year.

Protection for Nicholas son of Martin; so long as he be on the service of the king and Edward his son in Wales.

Whereas A. archbishop of Armagh, as justice required, has quashed the election of Master Thomas Lidel, to be bishop of Down (Dumnon) and is prepared by his metropolitan authority to provide Master Roger, archdeacon of Down, to the said church, if the royal assent be given, as by his letters patent he has signified to the king, the king at the instance of the archbishop, assents accordingly after the oath of fealty has been received from him, and as a special grace commands Stephen Langespeye, justiciary of Ireland, that if the said archdeacon has received the archbishop's confirmation, he is to restore to him the temporalities of the bishopric.

Mandate to the archbishop to do his part herein.

Protection with clause for Richard de Brew's, in the king's service in the parts of Wales; for such time as he be in such service.
