1258.

Membrane 15—cont.

Gilbert de Haya, have assumed the rule of the realm of Scotland, the king promises them that so long as they conduct the affairs of that realm according to God and justice and for the advantage and honour of the king's son, the king of Scotland, and the king's daughter, the queen of Scotland, and according to the laws and good customs of that realm, hitherto used, the king will when needful and when requested by them, give them his counsel and aid, on condition that if they or any of them offend in any way and are requested by the king to make amends and do not amend it within three months after the king's warning, the king shall be bound to them in nothing afterwards. [Feudera.]

Oct. 18. Proclamation by the king to the people of Huntingdonshire that the ordinances made by the council shall be established for ever.

The like is sent to every shire in England and to Ireland. [Feudera.]

[This is a translation in English of the document in French of the same date enrolled on the previous roll.]

Nov. 6. Simple protection for fifteen years for John Comyn of Neubalt; Westminster.

The like for William de Bolevyle, lately captured when on the king's service in the March of Wales, until he be delivered from prison.

Nov. 6. Grant, by the counsel of the magnates, to Simon de Monteforti, Westminster, earl of Leicester, that of the debts which the king owes to him he shall receive at this instant Hilary 200l.; and promise to pay the whole of the residue of what the king owes him at the exchequer of Easter.

Protection with clause, until Easter, for William de Albiniaeco, going to Scotland as the king's envoy.

Nov. 8. Appointment, by counsel of the council, of Alesia late the wife Westminster, of Edmund de Lacy to keep all the lands late of the said Edmund until one month after the Purification, so that she till and sow them and receive the issues and profits by view and testimony of the escheator beyond Trent. And if in the meantime agreement be made between the king and her for her to have the wardship of the said lands, as is being arranged, all the said issues and profits shall be allowed to her in the fine she makes; and if not, she shall answer for the same, saving her reasonable expenses in keeping and tilling the said lands during the said term.

Nov. 6. Grant, by ordinance of the magnates of the council, to Joan wife Westminster, of William de Valencia, the king's brother, of 400l. a year for her maintenance, to be taken at the New Temple, London, out of the money arising from the issues of the lands of the said William so long as he shall stay without the realm, and his bailiffs have not free administration of the said lands; so that she shall have 200l. this Michaelmas term, 42 Henry III, and 200l. next Easter and so thenceforward.

Nov. 6. Appointment of John de Swyneford, king's clerk, to sell the king's wines at York; and mandate to the mayor and bailiffs of York to be counselling and aiding to him.