March 10. Letter to the king of France notifying that the king is sending the earls of Leicester and Gloucester, P. de Sabaudia, J. Mansell, J. de Bayllol and Robert Walerand to expedite the peace; and to receive those things which by the peace ought to be assigned to the king.

The like, with this addition, requesting the said king to send back his wishes by them.

The like, in the first form, omitting John de Bayllol.

The like, omitting the earl of Leicester and the said John.

The like, naming only P. de Sabaudia, J. Maunsel and Robert Walerand.

March 10. Letter to the king of France that the king has given power to the earls of Leicester and Gloucester, P. de Sabaudia, J. Maunsel and Robert Walerand to select two of their number or others to act as arbitrators with two nominees of the king of France touching the amount of money which ought to be assigned by the king of France to the king for the maintenance of five hundred knights for two years.

Power to the earl of Gloucester and J. Maunsell, treasurer of York, to treat for and arrange a marriage between John eldest son and heir of the count of Brittany, and Beatrice the king's daughter.

Power to the earl of Gloucester, J. Maunsel and R. Walerand to make peace with S. de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, and the king's sister his wife in respect of all actions which they have against the king as well of her dower as other things; and power to select arbitrators for this on both sides.

The same power to the earl of Gloucester and P. de Sabaudia.

These letters aforesaid were sealed and handed to Sir J. Maunsell at Windsesore, 11 March. [This refers to all the entries above the words 'Letters procuratorial.]

Feb. 20. Notification that, whereas the king of France is bound by the form of peace to assign to the king land and pay a certain quantity of money for knights, the king understands that he is not bound to do this until he has done his homage to the said king [as above].

This letter was handed to John Maunsell because the king of France asked for such a letter by the dean of Tours and his other envoys in England; and the said John still has it, and never handed it over, as he says.

March 11. Whereas the lady Alavdis daughter and heir of Talesya &c. [word for word as on m. 12.]

March 20. Simple protection without term for Robert de Baumbury, chaplain.
