Protection with clause, for one year from Easter, for Drew de Barentyn, going as the king's envoy to Gascony.

March 25. Presentation of Richard Oysel to the church of Cortyngestok, in Westminster, the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the priory of Lenton; directed to G. archbishop of York.

March 25. Commission to Edward de Westmonasterio and the subprior and sacristan of the church of Westminster to receive yearly from Alesia de Lasey the money which she is bound to render to the king from a month after Easter for the wardship of the lands of Edmund de Lasey, sometime her husband, to be applied to the works of the said church. Mandate in pursuance to the said Alesia.

Protection with clause, until Michaelmas, for the master of the hospital of St. James without London, going to Ireland on the affairs of his hospital.

March 22. Presentation of Richard de Wintonia to the separate tithes of Echeneswell in the manor of Clere which Andrew de Branford lately deceased had there, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester; directed to B. archbishop of Canterbury or his official in the diocese of Winchester.

March 29. Appointment of Richard de Grey to keep the castle of Dovre in Westminster. He has sworn of the Holy Gospels that he will keep the said castle loyally in good faith to the use of the king and his heirs, that he will surrender it to the king and his heirs and to no other, and this by the council of the king (par nostre cunseil) and not otherwise, that is, by good men of the land elected to the king's council or by the greater part. This form is to last for twelve years and thereafter he shall not be constrained by this oath from surrendering it freely to the king and his heirs, kings of England. Likewise, at any time within the said twelve years, the said Richard shall surrender it at whatever time the council or the greater part of them shall will. [French].

The same form is given to the following:
- Gilbert de Gaunt, of the keeping of the castle of Scardeburg.
- William Bardolf, of the keeping of the castle of Notingham.
- Robert de Nevill, of the keeping of the castle of Bamburg.

March 28. Notification that the magnates of the council have granted that they will observe towards their own men the ordinances which the king has granted touching the reformation of the realm. [Fœdera.]

March 28. Like letters in French are directed to every county of England, with mandate to every sheriff to cause these letters made for the common advantage of the realm to be read in their full counties and in every hundred thereof and elsewhere through their bailiwicks, and to cause the tenor thereof to be observed. [Fœdera.]

Protection with clause, until Midsummer, for Nicholas de Sedgrave, going on pilgrimage to Pontigny.
