Membrane 6—cont.

London, and of Tethal, with the collations of prebends and churches belonging thereto, and all other dignities and ecclesiastical benefices which he had at the time of his promotion, so long as by the indulgence of the pope he can retain them; directed to archbishops and others in whose dioceses the ecclesiastical benefices are.

Vacated because otherwise below.

[There is a drawing of (St. Paul’s) church in the margin.]

July 17. Letters, for this time, for Richard abbot of Mont St. Michel in Normandy, nominating Geoffrey prior of Oterynton and Geoffrey de Hochesland his attorneys for three years from Michaelmas next.

July 19. Grant, for a fine of 100 marks which Richard de Treger, abbot elect of Fécamp, made on Wednesday before the feast of St. Margaret the Virgin, of the guardianship from that day during the present voidance of that abbey, the keeping of the lands in England belonging to that abbey, with wards, escheats, advowsons of churches and prebends and all other things, and of all the issues thereof as though it were in king’s hands, and so that no bailiff of the king may intermeddle therein; saving to the king the issues with the wards &c. from the time of being taken into the king’s hand until the said date.

Mandate to Adam de Eston, guardian of the said lands, to deliver them to him.

July 18. Grant, by the counsel of the magnates of the council, to H. [bishop] elect of London, that he shall keep the deaneries, dignities and all other ecclesiastical benefices underwritten which he had at the time of his promotion, so long as by the indulgence of the pope he can retain them; to wit, the deanery of St. Martin’s, London, with the collations of churches and prebends pertaining thereto; the deanery of Tetenhale, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, with the collation of prebends belonging thereto, the church of Auvillers, in the same diocese, which is a prebend of Bruges; the church of Worefceld in the same diocese; the churches of Kirkcym and Preston in Augmodemesse, in the diocese of York, in the archdeaconry of Richmond; and the church of Grymmesby in the diocese of Lincoln; and promise to him that the king will not present another to any of these, so long as he retains them by the pope’s indulgence; directed to archbishops and bishops in whose dioceses the benefices are.

By H. le Bigod, justiciary of England.

Pardon, at the instance of Richard, king of the Romans, to Geoffrey son of Robert de Aungers for the death of Walter Wydhod of Byneston.

July 20. Licence for the dean and chapter of Clonfert to elect a bishop in the room of Charles, deceased, by the bearer Benedict the chaplain, who brought news to the king by their letters of the said death.

Protection with clause, until his return, for Fulk, archbishop of Dublin, going to the court of Rome.

Licence for the dean and chapter of Elphin to elect a bishop to their church which is void by the postulation of Thomas their bishop to be archbishop of Tuam; by Brian their clerk, the bearer of their letters.
