July 26. Membrane 5—cont.

Grant to the wardens of the bridge of Mol between the town of Shrewsbury and the abbey of the same place, of pontage for three years from the Assumption in this year.

Mandate to the mayor, jurats and citizens of Bayonne to permit Sir Henry de Castella, brother of the king of Castile, who has bound himself by oath not to prosecute in his present journey to Africa any war, damage or oppression against his brother, to obtain necessaries for himself, his men and ships in the said town and take them to Africa, after first taking the oath of the king's mariners and men with him, that they will not seek or procure any war, damage or oppression against the king of Castile.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Oath by the said Henry de Castella to the king, who is permitting him to have shipping of his town of Bayonne to cross to Africa, that he will not prosecute or procure any war, molestation or oppression against the king of Castile his brother.

This letter was delivered into the wardrobe on Tuesday before St. Peter's Chains to Peter de Wintonia, clerk of the wardrobe, to keep.

Writ of aid for Henry de Candovre and John Lovell, king's huntsmen, whom the king is sending to take 100 bucks for his use in the parks of the bishopric of Winchester; directed to the bailiffs and guardians of the manors of that bishopric.

Grant to the above Henry de Castella, who has taken oath as above that he may get in Bordeaux ships, men and other necessaries for his said crossing; with mandate to the mayor, jurats and commonalty of Bordeaux, after taking an oath of him to the like effect, to permit him to do this.

In like manner it is commanded to the mayor, jurats and commonalty of Bayonne.

July 26. Ratification of a truce which W. bishop of Worcester, and P. bishop of Hereford, Humphrey de Boun the younger, Roger de Mortuo Mari, Peter de Monte Forti and Roger de Monte Alto, justice of Chester, have sworn at the ford of the water of Montgomery, on Wednesday before SS. Peter and Paul, 1259, to endure from St. Peter's Chains 1259 until the same day 1260, between the king and his people, English as well as Welsh, of the one part, and Llewelin son of Griffith and his people of the other part.

Memorandum that the letter of Llewelin upon the same affair was delivered in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia to keep.

July 28. Whereas the king, by charters, enfeoffed Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, and Eleanor, countess of Leicester, the king's sister, of the manor of Gunthorp, co. Nottingham, with the soke and other appurtenances, as of the value of 100 marks yearly of land, in part of the assignment to them and their heirs of 400L yearly of land which the king is bound to assign to them in escheats or other lands for 600 marks a year which they are accustomed to take of the king's gift by charters, so that they and their heirs cannot receive or exact anything hereafter; with regard to the remaining 500 marks a year
