Membrane 2.

Whereas in the voidance of the archbishopric of York by the death Sewal, late archbishop, Master J. de Exonia, chancellor of York, resigned the prebend of Fenton which he had obtained by the collation of the said archbishop during the said voidance, and in fact when the archbishopric was in the king's hands; and whereas the king collated the same to his clerk Master John Mansell, sending his letters patent to the dean and chapter of York to induct him, but the dean and chapter have neglected to execute the mandate, to the king's disherosion and the said clerk's peril; the king, by the counsel of the nobles and magnates of his council, has commanded that he be put in possession thereof by the sheriff of York. In order that the right of the king and his crown may be preserved and the said clerk may not suffer challenge touching his entry, the king protests that these things have been done by him and by his mandate.

By the whole council.

Memorandum that this letter was sealed at Windesore on 7 August, and enrolled at Westminster on 11 September.

Sept. 11. Appointment during pleasure, by the counsel of the magnates of the council, of Thomas Gresley to keep all the forests on this side Trent; and mandate to all persons to be intendant to him as justice of the forest.

Mandate to Robert Walerand to deliver the keeping to him.

Sept. 23. Presentation of Richard Russel to the church of Eyston, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Winchester;
