Licence for John Mansell, treasurer of York, to raise (levare) a sheepfold in the pasture which he holds of the king for life in Sneydal in the forest of Pikeryng, and enclose the same and keep if for his life; on condition that the king's deer (fere silvestres) can get in and out of the said pasture.

Protection with clause for John de Sancta Maria, chaplain of the queen, going with her to France; until he return.

Oct. 21. Grant to Juliana, abbess of Caen, as above, for five years.

Westminster. By H. le Bigod, the justiciary, and Philip Basset.

And for this grace she gave $ mark of gold which she paid in the wardrobe and is quit.

Oct. 24. Quit-claim to Richard de Grey of all accounts and reckonings for the period that he was constable of Dover and chamberlain of Sandewich, to wit, from his appointment thereto in the last parliament of Oxford, 42 Henry III, by the counsel of the magnates of the council until the Nativity of the Blessed Mary in this year, he having surrendered the said castle and chamberlainship in the presence of the magnates of the council and paid his account thereof.

Oct. 27. To the prior and canons of Dunstaple. Whereas at the king's petition they have kindly received the Friars Preachers to whom the king is specially devoted, to dwell in the town of Dunstaple, the king thanks them, and begs them to continue their kindness by giving the friars their counsel and aid in all their affairs and necessities, which he will regard as done to himself; the king, moreover, for the security of their mutual peace undertakes that if anything be attempted by any of the said friars against the form made between the prior and canons and the friars, it shall be fully amended, by the assent and authority of the king.

By K. and the justiciary. This letter is duplicated.

Protection with clause for John Mansell, treasurer of York, going beyond seas with the king, so long as he shall be with the king there.

The like for Amadeus, master of the Knights Templars in England, going with the king to France.

MEMBRANE 1.

Oct. 24. Mandate to W. bishop of Worcester, to pay the 6 marks a year due from him in return for the king's grant to him of pleas of withernam of the lands of the bishopic in the counties of Worcester, Gloucester and Warwick to the prioress and nuns of Wrocksheale at Worcester, in part acquittance of 10 marks a year which the prioress and nuns used to receive at the Exchequer by virtue of a grant of Henry II from his appointed alms.

Oct. 27. Commission to Roger de Mortuo Mari, Robert Walerand and Gilbert Talebot to enquire by jury of the county of Hereford whether it would be to the damage of the king to grant to the prioress and nuns of Acornebiry, for seven years, the king's demesnes of Acornebiry with the wood called Alstaneswode and the herbage,