

1259.

Membrane 13—cont.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger le Bigod, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, to Hamo de Livermere of his outlawry for the death of Thomas, parson of Turston.

Notification that, for a fine of 1 mark of gold, made by the abbot of Bernay (de Berniaco), the king has received William prior of Eye, and Matthew de Cormelliis, the abbot's fellow-monks, to be his attorneys in the realm for five years from Martinmas.

By H. le Bigod, justiciary and others of the council.

Simple protection, for one year, for Arnold Griffun.

The like, until Michaelmas, for Latinus Malebranche, papal chaplain, nephew of John Gaytan, cardinal deacon, and of Master Ern' de Alba Terra, parson of Clendon.

Grant, for long service, to German the king's tailor and Master Roger the king's cook of 4½*d.* a day at the Exchequer for their lives out of the first pence of the king's alms that shall fall void, except that portion of 4½*d.* which Richard le Normand who is sick holds, and which the king has granted to William de Meleford serjeant of the queen, if he survive the said Richard; the said German to be provided with his 4½*d.* a day first and after him Roger.

Mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Grant to William de Meleford, serjeant of the queen, of the 4½*d.* a day which Richard le Normand, sometime the king's carter, who is sick, takes at the Exchequer out of the king's appointed alms, as soon as they fall void by the death of the said Richard.

Mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Ratification of a fine made by Aaron son of Leo Blund, Jew of London, before Adam de Greynvill and his fellows, justices appointed for the keeping of the Jews, for having the houses, rents and chattels in London late of Leo his father (his chattels without the indentures (cyrographa) excepted) and the tallies; and confirmation to him of the said goods.

Nov. 11. Mandate to Lucy late the wife of William de Kyma not to fail to Canterbury. deliver the two sons and daughter of the said William in her keeping to Hugh le Bigod, to whom, by the counsel of the magnates of the council, the king has granted the wardship of the lands and heirs of the said William and the marriage of the heirs.

Nov. 7. Licence for Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, to Westminster. build (de novo construere) and fortify a castle at his manor of Manhale, co Essex, and another castle at his manor of Suthwaude co. Suffolk.

Memorandum that on Friday the morrow of St. Leonards the king ordered the above-written letter to the said earl of Gloucester to be made in the presence of Roger le Bigod, earl marshal, Hugh le Bigod, the justiciary of England, Henry de Wengham, the chancellor, John Mansell, treasurer of York, and others of the council in the queen's chapel at Westminster.