1260.

June 20.
Westminster.

Mandate to Bertram de Kardilag, the king's seneschal of Limousin, Perigord and Quercy, to let the abbess and nuns of Fontevrault have out of the issues of his bailiwick 500 pounds of Tours upon the arrears of their fee which they take yearly at the Exchequer, of the king's appointed alms, and this shall be allowed in his account.

By R. earl of Gloucester, H. le Bigod, the justiciary, J. Mansell.

June 25.
Merton.

Grant, with the assent of the magnates of the Council, to Alard de Shemmingham [in the margin Seningham], in augmentation of his grant of 20 marks a year at the Exchequer, of 60 marks a year at the Exchequer, until the king provide for him more abundantly in wards or escheats.

By R. earl of Gloucester, H. le Bygod the justiciary, and J. Mansell and others of the council.

Tuesday after St. Botulph.
London.

Whereas divers contentions were moved between Edward the king's first-born son and Richard de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, and they have submitted themselves to the decision and ordinance of the king and Richard, king of Almain, the kings pronounce as follows, to wit, that all contentions up to the feast of St. Botulph, 1260, be remitted on condition that all covenants and instruments made between them before this date be firmly kept and if any further discords arise between them or their men, these shall be amended by the dictators nominated in the said instruments.

By J. Mansell.

June 22.
Westminster.

Request to the king's brother R. king of the Romans, who before leaving the king pronounced his award in the above matter at Westminster, to cause his seal to be put to the above letters patent. And the king desires him to let him know by the bearer his state and good pleasure (beneplacitum), and how he crossed the sea, and how the affairs of his realm are.

MEMBRANE 7.

Grant to Gerard de Rodis of 60 marks a year at the Exchequer until the king can provide for him more abundantly in wards or escheats.

By K. & C.

June 27.
Merton.

Grant, during pleasure, to Henry son of the king of Almain of 100l. a year at the Exchequer.

By K. and the justiciary.

June 28.
Merton.

Mandate to all bailiffs to see that the abbot of Cluny, who is making a visitation in the realm, has a safe passage through their parts, as there is grave danger at present in many parts through evildoers lurking in woods and elsewhere.

Saturday after St. Botulph.

Bond by H. bishop of London, Richard, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, Hugh le Bygod, the justiciary, John Mansell, treasurer of York, and John de Crakhale, archdeacon of Bedford, on behalf of the king to Bertrand de Palacio, Arnold del Unde and Bernard de Roys, citizens and merchants of Toulouse, in 758l. 14s. 8d. to be paid to them in London 3 weeks after Michaelmas, to wit, 675l. for 270 tuns of wine bought of them at London; 83l. 14s. 8d. for an