
Membrane 7—cont.

Acknowledgment of the receipt from Louis, king of France, of 14,680 pounds, 66 shillings and 8 pence of Tours, to be deducted from the sum in which according to the form of the peace, he is bound to the king for the cost of knights; and promise to expend a like sum in the service of God or the church or to the advantage of the realm of England, as the king is bound by the said peace.

And be it known that the form of this letter was taken with them by Imbert de Munterfaut and Simon Passelewe, the king's envoys, on returning from France, and so was sealed by order of the king and council. [Feodera.]

Mandate to the prior and convent of Kyrkeham to deliver the whole of what Roger de Thurkelby deposited with them and which he has left to the executors of his will, for the execution of his will, to the said executors.

The like to the prior and convent of Bromholm.

The like to the prior and convent of Melton.

July 8. Westminster.

Safe conduct until the Assumption for Master David son of William, Master Madoc son of Philip, and Richard son of Madon, clerks, and others whom Llewelin son of Griffin is sending to the present parliament.

Notification to all persons that whereas upon the late voidance of the abbey of Westminster the king presented one of his clerks to the church of Sabryceisworth to Fulk, then bishop of London, and the said bishop opposed the presentation saying that the advowson belonged to him, the king has, before the justices at Westminster, recovered seisin of his presentation thereto by reason of the voidance of the said abbey, and moreover a mandate issued to the said bishop of London, by writ of judgment that he should admit at the king's presentation a fit person to the said church. Teste G. de Preston. [In the margin] For John Maunsell.

Membrane 7. (Schedule.)

The like notification directed to the abbot of Wautham and the prior of Huntedon.

Teste G. de Preston.

Membrane 7 (cont.)

July 8. Westminster.

Pardon to William de Camera of Pontefract of his abjuration of the realm for the death of Robert son of Richard de Wilmerleg, as it appears by an inquisition made by Roger de Thurkilby, sometime justice, and his fellows justices last in eyre in the county of York, that he killed him in self defence.

Mandate to the sheriffs of Gloucester, Worcester, Northampton and Oxford, to deliver the temporalities of the priory of Derhurst to John de Strenes, monk of St. Denis, in France, the king having admitted him to the rule and cure of the priory at the presentation of the abbot of St. Denis.

Pardon to William de la Feld for the death of Geoffrey son of Ralph de Fraxino, as it appears by inquisition made by John de Wivill that he killed him in mischance.