1260.

July 27. Simple protection, for five years, for Margery late the wife of Westminster. Bartholomew de Uphaven, mother of Reynold, brother of the hospital of St. James without London.

Commitment to Roger de Evesham of the abbey of Tavystok, during pleasure, void by the death of Philip Trenchefoyle, late abbot, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Mandate to the bailiffs and wardens of the present fairs of Len and Gernemuth to admit Ralph de Erleham, king's falconer, to buy and take at their market (ad forum vestrum) gerfalcons, goshawks, and sparrow-hawks to the king's use in the said fairs and towns, and to be of aid and counsel, to them in this.

Grant, by the counsel of the nobles of the council, to Imbert Pugeys,—in extension of a grant made before the king's late crossing to France, of the wardship of the lands late of John son of Bernard, by reasonable extent, saving to the king the marriage of the heirs and the advowsons of churches, and the said extent amounts to 91L 9s. 2d. a year—that he shall keep the said wardship with the dower of the wife of the said John [Imbert in the text] if it fall in in the meantime, with wards and escheats saving the marriage of the heirs, so that he pay out of the said extent to Frederic de Lavonia 100 marks yearly for the fee which the king has granted to him, and keep the remainder, to wit, 24L 15s. 10d. in lieu of his own yearly fee of 40 marks until the king provide for him to that value of land of wards or escheats. And if he die, his heirs or assigns shall answer at the Exchequer for the said 24L 15s. 10d.

July 28. Protection with clause, for one year, from Michaelmas for Walter Westminster. de Dunheved, going to Ireland on the affairs of Edward the king's son.

Signification to R. bishop of Lincoln, of the royal assent to the election of Robert de Olneye, subprior of St. Frideswide's, Oxford, to be prior thereof.

MEMBRANE 5.

July 27. Bond to Henry, bishop of London, Richard, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, Hugh le Bygod, justiciary of England, John Mansell, treasurer of York, and John de Crakhale, the treasurer, who have made themselves principal debtors to Bertrand de Palacio and his fellows, merchants of Toulouse, for 788L 14s. 8d. to be paid in London three weeks after Michaelmas, for wines lately bought from them at London and for an old debt of wines wherein the king was bound to them; of all the money of the instant exchequer of Michaelmas so that nothing be taken or delivered, by pretext of any mandate, to any other until they are paid, and the treasurer is to reserve the whole of the said receipt to the said amount for delivery to the said merchants.

In the same form three pairs of letters issued.

July 29. Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the priory of St. Frideswide's Oxford, in favour of Robert de Olneye, the subprior, whose election as prior has been confirmed by R. bishop of Lincoln.